Preaching Parables to Postmoderns Brian Stiller, 2005-01-01 Preachers in their call to preach the Scriptures are not only charged with the responsibility of speaking its truth but of speaking in such a way that people of this age and culture understand To do this the preacher builds a bridge between today's people and the gospel of both testaments For some this task is more difficult than for others Preaching to those living in an inner city housing project is far removed from an outpost mission in the two thirds world Each community has its own way of thinking and attaches different values to symbols of its own making For those called preach to a generation raised on MTV and late night comedians or those rooted in various economic cultures from government sponsored jobs overseen by union bosses to entrepreneurial dot com companies or generations stretching from high school students to freedom fifty fivers the task is enormous When one adds to that the complexity of a radical shift in underlying intellectual and cultural assumptions the task of preaching becomes even more complicated
