Preaching To Sufferers:

Preaching to Sufferers Kent D. Richmond, 1988      Preaching on Social Suffering Jeremy Kangsan Kim, 2023-03-01 In this book Jeremy Kim criticizes current Korean and Asian American homiletical strategies for their lack of a theological point of view on social suffering. He argues that preachers must develop an alternative theological homiletical viewpoint on social suffering, one that has pastoral and prophetic approaches. These two approaches offer people a refuge and a voice not only in the church community but also in the larger social community. Thus the author suggests that preachers adopt the biblical lament, highlighting its dual tasks of compassion (the pastoral dimension) and resistance (the prophetic dimension). The author, who is a non-Western Asian American preacher, also incorporates East Asian philosophical and hermeneutical research on renaissance as a positive element of Confucianism into his argument. He applies this core concept of Confucianism to the preacher's homiletical strategy toward social suffering. Thus the author proposes that Korean preachers should recover renaissance, which contains sincere compassion for others as well as a voice of resistance that reveals unjust social structures as the cause of social suffering and expresses both within and to the community.      Sermons for Sufferers Julian D. Dusenbury (II), 2022

Preaching God's Compassion LeRoy Aden, Robert G. Hughes, 2001-12-01 Centering on five particular situations of suffering—loss, illness, violence, fear, and failure—this book suggests ways in which a pastor can preach to parishioners who are experiencing trauma. Three sample sermons illustrate how to preach on God's gracious activity while avoiding psychologizing the text and reducing the gospel to cheap therapy for individual problems.      Pastoral Care in Hospitals, Second Edition Neville A. Kirkwood, 2005-10 Bringing comfort and concern to the bedside of the sick or dying is a challenge for lay people and clergy alike. In this practical guide, Neville Kirkwood shares his wisdom gleaned from some twenty years of experience as a hospital chaplain on the art of hospital visitation. This classic handbook is now updated with an all new section addressing best practices for hospital chaplains. Pastoral Care in Hospitals with additional sections addressed to clergy and trained lay pastoral workers as well as ordinary lay people who simply want to visit their fellow parishioners shows visitors ways to make the encounter meaningful and enriching to the patient. Kirkwood guides readers through the minefield of hospital visits from false heartiness to too much talking and offers a theology of visitation that can guide both professionals and laity in their ministry. A variety of exercises and a section of prayers for specific circumstances make this a must-have resource for all who work with the sick and dying and an excellent text for course work.      The Dinah Project Monica A. Coleman, 2010-04-01 Sexual violence is rarely discussed in church despite the rising incidents of rape, sexual assault, molestation, and incest. The Dinah Project, which gets its name from Genesis 34 (the rape of Dinah, Jacob's daughter), was borne out of the author's decision to start healing through the church after being raped. The result is this book and an entire ministry program to assist churches in responding to sexual violence. The Dinah Project describes programmatic ways in which a local church can respond to the crisis of sexual violence in the community. By sharing the lessons of one church, this book proposes detailed methods for instituting a church program The Dinah Project provides church activities ranging from providing resources for members to ways to organize a full time church ministry and many stages in between Topics include planning worship services conducting community education workshops working with local agencies establishing a board of directors and holding therapy groups at the church With checklists forms and detailed explanations this user friendly book guides any interested individual from basic information about sexual violence to tips on budgeting for programs The Home and Foreign Record of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1853 Luminescence, Volume 2 C. K. Barrett, Fred Barrett, 2017-08-09 What is found in this series unveils an entirely different side of C K Barrett a side one might never have known about if one had knowledge only of his famous commentaries and monographs Herein lies a goodly selection of Kingsley s sermons preached largely in small and medium sized Methodist churches in the Northeast of England though often elsewhere in England and around the world Fred Barrett was not the scholar his son was but on close inspection one can most definitely see the impact of the father on the son when it came to preaching It seems right to include as many sermons from both of these men as we can in this series One thing sorely lacking in much preaching these days is in depth engagement with both the biblical text and one s tradition and theology The sermons in these volumes demonstrate what such preaching can look like While the first volume presented sermons on the Gospels and Acts this second volume covers the rest of the New Testament and extensive portions of the Old Testament Living In-Between Andre Resner, 2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus first and second comings between the promise and fulfillment between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life love hope and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tensive in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament s vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents The Preacher's Analyst, 1881 A Continuation Of The Account Of The Ministers, Lecturers, Masters and Fellows of Colleges, and Schoolmasters, who Were Ejected and Silenced After the Restoration in 1660, by Or Before the Act for Uniformity Edmund Calamy, 1727

Contemporary African American preaching P3040, L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression Preaching Job John C. Holbert,2011-06-13 Drawing on both pastoral and scholarly experience John Holbert offers a fresh approach to the preaching of a familiar scripture To be a Joban preacher he says is to draw on the pain and honesty inherent in the text Holbert understands the preacher s task as interpreting the whole of the book of job not just the narrative and the poetry This integrative approach allows the book s entire theology to inform sermons Included for illustration are an embodied sermon and a narrative sermon based on passages from Job Yale Lectures on Preaching Henry Ward Beecher,1902 A Sermon preach'd in Exeter, August the 24th, 1742. Being Bartholomew-Day, etc Peter Baron,1742 Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1991 Bowker Editorial Staff,1991-09 Spurgeon Alex DiPrima,2024-08-01 Alex DiPrima paints a fresh portrait of Charles Haddon Spurgeon the most well known gospel minister of the nineteenth century China's Millions Anonymous,2024-03-05 Reprint of the original first published in 1880 China's Millions ,1880 A Right Old Confloption Down Penzance Stephen Dray,2013-01-10 An Account of the 1824 tract war between the Baptist and Methodist ministers in Penzance Cornwall George Charles Smith and John Waterhouse The controversy is explored through the literature and personalities of the individuals involved and the history of the Baptists in Cornwall The book argues that the Baptist movement was irrevocably damaged by it Both the main antagonists were subsequently major pioneer figures in Wesleyan and Seamen s missions
