Football Nation Rebeccah Dawson,Bastian Heinsohn,Oliver Knabe,Alan McDougall,2022-10-14 Over the past century the impact of football on Germany has been manifold influencing the arts political debates and even contributing to the construction of cultural memories and national narratives Football Nation analyses the game's fluid role in shaping and reflecting German society and spans its focus on modern German history from the Wilhelmine era to the early 21st century Expounding on topics of gender class fandom spectatorship antisemitism nationalism and internationalism a diverse group of interdisciplinary scholars offer a novel approach to understanding the many influences of football throughout its extensive history which until recently has only been available to a German speaking readership

Coloniality and Meritocracy in Unequal EU Migrations Simone Varriale, 2023-04-28 This book rethinks meritocracy as a form of coloniality namely a social imaginary that reproduces narratives of ethnic and racial difference between European centres and peripheries and between Europe and its others Drawing on interviews with working and middle class white and Black Italians who moved to Britain after the 2008 economic crisis the book explores the narratives of Northern meritocracy and Southern backwardness that inform migrants motivations for moving abroad and how these narratives are experienced within classed racialised and gendered migrations Connecting decolonial theory with the sociology of Pierre Bourdieu this book provides innovative insights into the relationships between meritocracy coloniality and European whiteness and into the social stratification of EU migrations

Through My Enemy's Eyes Salim J Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2014-02-01 This book addresses the universal theological dimension of reconciliation in the context of the Israeli Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian divide Palestinian Christians and Israeli Messianic Jews share a belief in Jesus as the son of God and Messiah Often though that is all they have in common This remarkable book written in collaboration by a local Palestinian Christian and an Israeli Messianic Jew seeks to bridge this gap by addressing head on divisive theological issues as well as their political implications such as land covenant prophecy and eschatology which separate their two communities The struggle for reconciliation is painful and often extremely difficult for all of us This unique work seeks to show a way forward

COMMENDATIONS In a world that wants to see only one side of every conflict and this one especially where people believe only their own propaganda and where many Christians inhabit hard shells of theological political and apocalyptic certainties this book is a bravely different voice Rather it is two voices talking carefully honestly graciously respectfully and truthfully to each other as sisters and brothers in the Messiah should This is a unique conversation in which each partner Messianic Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Christian gives full expression to all that they are and think and feel about themselves and the conflict in their land We are treated to some stretching theological debate and some honest self criticism But above all we come to share the hope and courage that shines through the pain and struggle

Christopher J H Wright International Ministries Director Langham Partnership UK The Palestinian Israeli divide may be the most intractable conflict of our time With great courage honestly facing the turbulent political historical and theological landscape which authentic reconciliation must engage Munayer and Loden open up fresh space Given the divides between their communities this book is a remarkable achievement a cry of hope from the land where Jesus walked Chris Rice Director of the Center for Reconciliation Duke Divinity School USA      Violence Elsewhere 2 Dr Clare Bielby, Professor Mererid Puw Davies, 2024-11-12 Examines ideas of violence in German culture after 9 11 through the lens of violence elsewhere exploring works and discourses about violence in distant locations or times Following the Nazi era the Holocaust and the Second World War in postwar Germany thinking or speaking about that extreme violence seemed distinctively difficult even perhaps at times impossible Yet we can learn about understandings of violence in this period in novel ways by exploring images and constructions in German culture of faraway violence as shown in the recent volume Violence Elsewhere 1 Imagining Distant Violence in Germany 1945 2001 As of September 11 2001 violence came to appear transnationally spectacularly mobile in new ways Consequently Violence Elsewhere 2 explores ideas about violence elsewhere in German language culture since 2001 Here elsewhere can mean not only distant places it may also be violence perceived as foreign or in the past Simultaneously this work suggests that the idea of 9 11 as a watershed in thinking about violence is more complex than meets the eye Here nine essays consider classic literary forms like poetry and prose fiction from the short story to the intergenerational German family novel to Black feminist speculative fiction Contributors examine too philosophy performance and multimedia art political and other forms of public discourse and film Topics include amongst others the war on terror slow environmental violence the Armenian genocide portrayals of refugees and migrants legacies of colonial violence space travel and the persistent resonance of the German past Contributors Sof a Forchieri Susanne C Knittel Marie Kolkenbrock Priscilla Layne Joanne Leal Francesca Lewis Frauke Matthes Lizzie Stewart Nicola Thomas and Kathrin Wunderlich This book is available as Open Access under the Creative Commons license CC BY NC ND      How to Belong Belinda A. Stillion Southard, 2018-10-05 In How to Belong Belinda Stillion Southard examines how women leaders throughout the world have asserted their rhetorical agency in troubling economic social and political conditions Rather than utilizing the concept of citizenship to bolster political influence the women in the case studies presented here rely on the power of relationships to create a more habitable world With the rise of global capitalism many nation states that have profited from invigorated flows of capital have also responded to the threat of increased human mobility by heightening national citizenship's exclusionary power Through a series of case studies that include women grassroots protesters a woman president and a woman United Nations director Stillion Southard analyzes several examples of women all as embodied subjects in a particular transnational context pushing back against this often violent rise in nationalist rhetoric While scholars have typically used the concept of citizenship to explain what it means to belong Stillion Southard instead shows how these women have reimagined belonging in ways that have enabled them to create national regional and global communities As part of a broader conversation centered on exposing the violence of national citizenship and proposing ways of rejecting that violence this book seeks to provide answers through the powerful rhetorical practices of resilient and inspiring women who have successfully negotiated what it means to belong to be included and to enact change beyond the boundaries of citizenship      Displacement,

Belonging, and Migrant Agency in the Face of Power Tamar Mayer, Trinh Tran, 2022-06-29 This book centres the voices and agency of migrants by refocusing attention on the diversity and complexity of human mobility when seen from the perspective of people on the move in doing so the volume disrupts the binary logics of migrant refugee push pull and places of origin destination that have informed the bulk of migration research Drawn from a range of disciplines and methodologies this anthology links disparate theories approaches and geographical foci to better understand the spectrum of the migratory experience from the viewpoint of migrants themselves The book explores the causes and consequences of human displacement at different scales both individual and community level and across different time points from antiquity to the present and geographies not just the Global North but also the Global South Transnational scholars across a range of knowledge cultures advance a broader global discourse on mobility and migration that centres on the direct experiences and narratives of migrants themselves Both interdisciplinary and accessible this book will be useful for scholars and students in Migration Studies Global Studies Sociology Geography and Anthropology Fetishism and Culture Hartmut

Böhme, 2014-08-25 Hartmut Böhme's study of fetishism spans all the way from Christian image magic in the Middle Ages to fetishistic practices in fashion advertising sport and popular culture today In it he provides a thorough exploration of religion magic idolatry sexuality and consumption charting the mental scientific and artistic processes through which fetishism became a central category in European culture's account of itself Global Arab Fiction Nadia Atia, Lindsey

Moore, 2024-12-30 Global Arab Fiction explores twenty first century fiction set in north and east Africa the Gulf the Arab east and diaspora showing diversity and connections across Arab world contexts Nadia Atia and Lindsey Moore draw on a substantial literary corpus highlighting contemporary trends in what is available to Anglophone audiences and considering how Arab fiction circulates as a global commodity Global Arab Fiction begins by positioning the Arab novel as a global phenomenon It also explores the influence of literary prizes notably the International Prize for Arabic Fiction on the enhanced international visibility of Arab fiction this century The authors tackle the thorny issue of violence in representing Arab world contexts and spotlight queer Arab desire identity and community They address the rise of speculative Arab literary modes and show how both mobility and immobility challenge a global paradigm Global Arab Fiction illuminates a vibrant body of literature rooted in but not circumscribed by a region redefined by twenty first century global geopolitics This book offers new arguments about twenty first century Arab literary tropes modes consecration routes identities and contexts It is unmissable for readers interested in contemporary postcolonial Arab Middle Eastern and world literary studies

Convictions, Conflict, and Moral Reasoning David J. McMillan, 2021-12-14 The primary focus of this volume is to bring to the fore the contribution of McClendon and Smith's work on convictions and the application of that work in helping understand the processes of moral reasoning in the context of conflict Both were indebted to Zuurdeeg and their concept was incorporated in models of moral reasoning by Baptist scholars Glen Stassen and Parush Parushev The usefulness of the concept is critically evaluated The volume concludes with a case study on the conflict in Northern Ireland including the role of religion and the key issues raised in the referendum on the Belfast Agreement in 1998 It includes an examination of the contribution of four Christian groups in Northern Ireland who publicly engaged in this six week period of intense and passionate debate on the Agreement and the difficult issues it addressed as the focus for examining and testing the application of the model of moral reasoning On the basis of the case study is demonstrated that the concept of convictions can prove to be a helpful means of getting to the heart of what drives moral reasoning in contexts of conflict The purpose of this book is to issue a call to engage with critique and consider the importance and application of a much undervalued methodological approach to discerning the convictions that are the primary influencers of thought and action Moving

Islands Diana Looser, 2021-09-30 Moving Islands reveals the international and intercultural connections within contemporary performance from Oceania focusing on theater performance art art installations dance film and activist performance in sites throughout Oceania and in Australia Asia North America and Europe Diana Looser's study moves beyond a predictable country specific or island specific focus to encompass an entire region defined by diversity and global exchange showing how performance operates to frame social artistic and political relationships across widely dispersed locations The study also demonstrates how Oceanian performance contributes to international debates about diaspora indigeneity urbanization and environmental sustainability The author considers the region's unique cultural and geographic dynamics as she brings forth the paradigm of transpacific to suggest a way of understanding these intercultural exchanges and connections with the aim to rework the cartographic and disciplinary priorities of transpacific studies to privilege the activities of Islander peoples
