

Precarious Global Food Situation

World Grain Production and Consumption, 1960-2011

- Dangerously small margin between grain consumption and grain production
- Now we face long-term trends that:
 - increase food demand
 - limit food production

We are only one poor harvest away from chaos in world grain markets.

Precarious Global Incandescence

Trevor J. Barnes, Brett Christophers

Precarious Global Incandescence:

Narratives of Precarious Migrancy in the Global South Gigi Adair, Carly McLaughlin, 2025-02-14 This volume sets out to challenge and expand Anglophone literary migration studies in the global North with a two fold approach It proposes precarious migrancy as a conceptual framework to capture hitherto neglected aspects of subaltern displacement and it turns to the global South as a site of knowledge production about migration The chapters discuss literary narratives originally written in Chinese Kurdish and Italian as well as English and covering a wide geographical range to ask what experiences and understandings of migration emerge from Southern perspectives Across the volume precarious migrancy emerges as a key concept for understanding contemporary globalization in general and migration in the global South in particular The chapters offer significant reconceptualizations of precarity and migrancy by reading Southern literatures of migration as a mode of theorization of the contemporary world contributing to the ongoing shift in framings of migration in Anglophone and postcolonial literary studies This volume will be of significant interest to scholars in literary migration studies global South studies and postcolonial studies It offers readings of rarely studied literary texts as well as new concepts for scholars interested in understanding the nexus of literature and migration today

Precarious Global Incandescence Marilyn Freeman, 2005-01-01 Professor Argyle Giles Yardley teaches at Brentley College for Women in Val de Ries Vermont He accepts playwright director Sally Venture s invitation to appear in Precarious Global Incandescence a serious play Rehearsals go badly the play becomes a musical and he s asked to play showgirl Grandilee He agrees only because he s determined to win the hands feet and all the rest of young Sally Professor Yardley suddenly finds himself with characters like wardrobe mistress Fishbone Mary eleven year old tap dancer Weesily Sam and property master actor Kimberly Cain Call me Cain because I m Able He is confronted by major crises caused by the mounting of an amateur theatrical production and the fact that he s getting older He counteracts this with magical powers of Glenyiddish Scotch Whisky As one reader put it Precarious Global Incandescence is a roller coaster ride and a jolly good show

Decoloniality in the Break of Global Blackness Michaeline A. Crichlow, Patricia M. Northover, 2025-05-21 This book contextualized by the violence of globalization investigates the fungible fugitive and untenable experiences of Black being and time through a decolonial poethics of global Blackness In so doing it introduces innovative readings of coloniality decoloniality by threading its meaning and movement through the problem of Blackness It argues that global Blackness is the complexly entangled other side of decoloniality as movement method and poethics for radical new worlds The essays explore this through inter transdisciplinary creative and decolonial standpoints whether from prison abolitionist demands to Afrofuturist imaginaries or by seeing through Black mirrors It emphasizes the paradoxical characteristics of global Blackness its spectral quality of being in and out of modernity s self narrative to provide a way of dwelling with global Blackness as a force that is neither properly constituted by corporeality nor thinkable in ontological terms determined by modern power The book will be of interest to academics

researchers and students in the fields of social sciences cultural studies postcolonial studies as well as cultural practitioners art educators artists cultural activists and those institutions that seek to decolonize imaginaries thought practices and methods Given its diverse offerings it will also be of interest to upper level undergraduates graduate students and academics

EmberStone's Flame Crystal Buchanan, Where Darkness Forges the Fiercest Flames of Revenge and Desire In a realm scorched by betrayal and steeped in ancient magic survival demands more than strength it requires a soul set ablaze by vengeance The air still tastes of ash and the echo of lost screams rings through the desolate landscape of Oakhaven a village reduced to charred ruins by the merciless Obsidian Covenant Amidst the shadows of devastation stands a lone survivor a Flame elemental whose burning spirit pulses with the volatile power of the Whisperwind Fire More than a story of ruin this is a journey into the heart of darkness where morality blurs and passion scorches where love and destruction intertwine in a relentless dance Readers will be drawn into a world where the very earth bears scars of an unholy sorcery and every ember hints at secrets waiting to ignite The protagonist's fury fuels a quest not only for retribution but also for redemption relentlessly facing foes whose obsidian weapons and corrupted magic threaten to unravel reality itself Brace yourself for an immersive tale of broken legacies and forbidden desires where the line between villain and hero fades Experience intense battles not only with fire and steel but also with the aching depths of the heart This narrative will grip you with its raw emotion and vivid world building revealing strength in vulnerability and beauty within the shattered For those who crave a dark fantasy romance layered with moral complexity and fierce passion this story offers a hauntingly beautiful escape one where every page shimmers with the heat of a flame that refuses to die Step into the ashes feel the heat of a soul forged in loss and discover the incendiary power of a love that can rise from even the darkest ruin

Producing Mayaland Claudia Fonseca Alfaro, 2023-04-10 Producing Mayaland Producing Mayaland powerfully captures the extent to which the abstract spaces of global capital are infused with colonial fantasies haunted by uncanny ruins and plagued by monstrous manifestations of ecological breakdown Through a compelling account of the maquiladora industry in the Yucatan Peninsula Claudia Fonseca Alfaro vividly conveys the inextricable entanglements of the capitalist production of space and the coloniality of power Japhy Wilson School of Social Sciences University of Manchester UK In Producing Mayaland Claudia Fonseca Alfaro finds a unique voice to narrate the contested relations between everyday life urbanization and the uneven development of capitalism in Motul Yucatán Mexico The remarkable insights of this work emerge from her innovative synthesis of critical urban theory anticolonialism and magical realism all grounded in an imaginative appropriation of Henri Lefebvre's oeuvre on the production of space Kanishka Goonewardena Professor of Geography and Planning University of Toronto Critical urban theory and postcolonial approaches are brought together in this compelling book to explore the relationship between colonial legacies urbanization and global capitalism in southern Mexico Producing Mayaland investigates the boom to bust story of maquiladoras in the state of Yucatán to shed light on how the built environment was shaped by discourse imaginaries and everyday practices In making sense of this social production of space the author examines infrastructure constructed to support the maquiladora project and traces the attempts of the state to portray Yucatán as an exotic and business friendly maquiladora paradise These practices stand in contrast to the livelihood strategies and life stories of maquiladora workers and residents Carefully weaving geography history and ethnography the author draws on a wide range of sources to illustrate a central tension in capitalism its tendency to homogenize while thriving in differentiation With important insights into an understudied location Producing Mayaland urges us to understand urbanization in the global South in new ways

Beauty Queens on the Global Stage Colleen Ballerion Cohen, Richard Wilk, Beverly Stoeltje, 2013-09-13 Modern beauty contests were invented by P T Barnum in the United States but in the 20th century pageants and contests have spread across the entire world from Nepal to Tierra Del Fuego Why are women and sometimes men in drag parading on stage such a universally appealing spectacle attracting an audience in the billions This book is the first global comparison of pageants from different parts of the world at the ways each contest is both intensely local and unique and simultaneously global and remarkable repetitious The authors use the latest tools of feminist ethnographic and literary scholarship to unpack and interpret one of the greatest and most universal spectacles of modern times

Terrorism Eluma Ikemefuna Sylas, 2006 Building Spiritual Muscles is written in five parts Part I talks about how my encounters with ordinary people during my world travels helped put my years of metaphysical understandings into perspective Part II is a sketch of my early life where the seeds of my metaphysical thought processes were sown Part III offers advice for developing physical strength and endurance based on my many years of body building and work as a personal trainer In part IV I share insights instructions meditations and exercises that I use for building spiritual strength Part V highlights essential metaphysical guidelines that can expand have expanded my capacity for inner peace no matter what I've encountered on life's journey This book is not a traditional how to book I believe that each individual must find his or her own path to happiness and peace of mind My belief is that sharing my personal experiences and revelations would motivate others on their journey to peace of mind This is a journey of the heart It begins by being open to others being non judgmental having compassion and self love It takes living and experiencing to discover your own individual way The only person who can teach you about yourself is you however every once in a while people show up in our lives as guides Guides help smooth out the path but it's our own personal experiences that generate wisdom

The US-Thai Alliance and Asian International Relations Gregory Raymond, John Blaxland, 2021-05-30 Thailand a long standing defence partner of the United States and ASEAN's second largest economy occupies a geostrategically important position as a land bridge between China and maritime Southeast Asia This book based on extensive original research explores the current state of US Thai relations paying particular attention to how the United States is perceived by a wide range of people in the Thai defence establishment and highlighting the importance of historical memory The book outlines how the US Thai relationship has been complicated and at times turbulent discusses how Thailand is deeply embedded in multi faceted relationships with many Asian states not just China and examines how far the United States is blind to the complexities of Asian international relations by focusing too much on China The book concludes by assessing how US Thai relations are likely to develop going forward Additionally the work contributes to alliance theory by showing how domestic politics shapes memory which in turn affects perceptions of other states

Concrete Utopianism Gary Wilder,2022-08-09 Finalist 2022 Big Other Book Award for Nonfiction Never before has it been more important for Left thinking to champion expansive visions for societal transformation Yet influential currents of critical theory have lost sight of this political imperative Provincial notions of places periods and subjects obstruct our capacity to invent new alignments and envision a world we wish to see Political imagination is misread as optimism Utopianism is conflated with idealism Revolutionary traditions of non liberal universalism and non bourgeois humanism are rendered illegible Negative critique becomes an end in itself Pessimism is mistaken for radicalism and political fatalism risks winning the day In this book Gary Wilder insists that we place solidarity and temporality at the center of our political thinking He develops a critique of Left realism Left culturalism and Left pessimism from the standpoint of heterodox Marxism and Black radicalism These traditions offer precious resources to relate cultural singularity and translocal solidarity political autonomy and worldwide interdependence They develop modes of immanent critique and forms of poetic knowledge to envision alternative futures that may already dwell within our world traces of past ways of being knowing and relating that persist within an untimely present or charged residues of unrealized possibilities that were the focus of an earlier generation s dreams and struggles or opportunities for dialectical reversals embedded in the contradictory tendencies of the given order Concrete Utopianism makes a bold case for embracing what Wilder calls a politics of the possible impossible Attentive to the non identical character of places periods and subjects insisting that axes of political alignment and contestation are neither self evident nor unchanging reworking Lenin s call to transform the imperial war into a civil war he invites Left thinkers see beyond inherited distinctions between here and there now and then us and them Guided by the spirit of Marx s call for revolutionaries to draw their poetry from a future they cannot fathom yet must nevertheless invent he calls for practices of anticipation that envision and enact call for and call forth seemingly impossible ways of being together He elaborates a critical orientation that emphasizes the dialectical relations between aesthetics and politics political imagination and transformative practice concrete interventions and revolutionary restructuring past dreams and possible worlds means of struggle and its ultimate aims This orientation requires nonrealist epistemologies that do not mistake immediate appearances with the really real Such epistemologies would allow critics to recognize uncanny and untimely aspects of social life whether oppressive or potentially emancipatory They may help actors to render the world subversively uncanny and untimely They may clear pathways for the kind of critical internationalism and concrete utopianism that Left politics cannot afford to ignore

What Is Progress Aldo Schiavone, 2021-07-13 Historian Schiavone mixes philosophy politics and anthropology in this stimulating inquiry into the paradigm of progress Publishers Weekly Today many believe that progress is a word to be avoided a relic from a past the dangerous product of an era of intellectual naivety that would be best forgotten Yet the idea of progress is rooted in a human impulse that is both profound and essential a way of interpreting history without which our ability to plan the future and our very identity would be at stake Written just before the onset of the Coronavirus pandemic which is now putting its argument to the hardest of tests this lucid essay explores how science and technology have been and can still be a powerful engine for human advancement Altered Altitudes Lisa

Robertson, 2024-11-20 Miami a shimmering mirage of sun drenched opulence teeters on the brink of watery oblivion The turquoise embrace of the ocean once a playground for the privileged now laps ominously at the city's gleaming towers a chilling harbinger of its impending submergence In this precarious paradise where political machinations and ecological devastation collide an improbable love story unfolds amidst the rising tides Dr Benjamin Carter a brilliant but perpetually underestimated climatologist carries the weight of Miami's future on his shoulders Haunted by grim projections of inundated streets he tirelessly presents irrefutable data to a city council blinded by avarice and self preservation Each meticulously crafted report each impassioned plea falls on deaf ears leaving Ben isolated and increasingly desperate his warnings echoing unanswered in the opulent halls of power Maya Rodriguez an activist whose fiery spirit mirrors the encroaching ocean bursts into this world of scientific despair and political corruption Unlike Ben who navigates the labyrinthine corridors of academia and officialdom Maya understands the raw power of disruptive action She views the encroaching saltwater not as an act of God but as a consequence of human greed a manufactured crisis orchestrated by the very elite who cling to their extravagant lifestyles With her small band of devoted followers Maya wages a relentless guerilla war against the establishment her targeted protests and meticulously researched exposés laying bare the festering rot at the city's core Their paths first collide during a climate summit a meticulously staged spectacle designed to obfuscate the city's dire predicament Maya and her cohorts hijack the proceedings their audacious tactics clashing with Ben's measured approach Their initial encounter is a volatile cocktail of mutual respect and simmering antagonism Ben the man of science is wary of Maya's confrontational methods Maya the woman of action sees Ben's reliance on data and official channels as naive Yet beneath their ideological clash a spark ignites a shared desperation to save their sinking city As Miami descends further into chaos ravaged by increasingly ferocious storm surges Ben and Maya find themselves drawn together by the urgency of their shared mission They begin to collaborate their initial animosity melting away into grudging respect then admiration and finally undeniable attraction Their investigation unearths a web of corruption that reaches far beyond the city council chambers ensnaring developers lobbyists and even international corporations Each revelation raises the stakes placing Ben and Maya in mortal danger Amidst the escalating crisis food shortages become rampant clean water a precious commodity displacement a constant threat Social unrest simmers threatening to erupt into anarchy In this maelstrom Ben and Maya emerge as unlikely leaders galvanizing a burgeoning resistance movement their love a beacon of hope in a city teetering on the precipice The climax arrives with a catastrophic storm surge a monstrous wave that overwhelms Miami's weakened defenses The city plunges into darkness its infrastructure crippled its inhabitants fighting for survival Ben and Maya must make a desperate gamble a final audacious play to expose the conspiracy and force the world to acknowledge Miami's plight Their plan fraught with peril requires them to put their lives on the line their trust in each other their only shield

Language Put to Work Enda Brophy, 2017-08-11 WINNER of The Gertrude J Robinson Book Prize awarded by the Canadian Communication Association and the Canadian Association of Work and Labour Studies Book of the Year Award This book examines the striking rise of call centres over the past quarter century through the lens of the resistance and collective organizing generated by workers along the digital assembly lines Drawing on field research in Atlantic Canada Ireland Italy and New Zealand Enda Brophy investigates the contested making of the transnational call centre workforce and its integration into the circuits of global capitalism Moving beyond depictions of call centre labour as either entirely liberated or utterly subordinated Language Put to Work inquires into the forms of work refusal and insubordination provoked by the spread of these communicative workplaces including informal strategies of quitting slacking and sabotage conventional trade union activity tactical innovations at the margins of the labour movement and forms of self organization forged by workers outside of the established trade union movement Weaving rich empirical evidence together with political economic analysis and theories of resistance this book argues that the submission of language to the production of value in the call centre is a process of proletarianization rather than professionalization and that the new working class has widely opposed this transformation Sung for Anidreb Kevin Hart,1998 The Environment--preserving the Future G.
