Film Analysis in English Hurtrez Lionel, 2013-11-05 Cet ouvrage apporte aux lecteurs les outils leur permettant de mener bien l exercice d analyse de s quences en anglais Il offre la fois une m thodologie le vocabulaire appropri un bagage culturel ainsi qu une s rie d exemples concrets en anglais Il se propose d tre un outil sur lequel peut s'appuyer l'enseignant mais il se veut également assez complet pour pouvoir être utilisé en autonomie. Il s'appuie sur les recherches récentes en études cinématographiques qu'elles soient en langue anglaise ou française et permet ainsi de faire le pont entre les différentes approches sans pour autant multiplier les références aux débats trop précis qui obscuriraient le propos. Néanmoins, des références parcourent le texte afin de donner au lecteur la possibilité d'approfondir son travail sur tel ou tel aspect du cinéma. Les exemples d'analyses portent sur des extraits de films classiques et offrent un panorama le plus juste possible du cinéma anglo-saxon. L'ensemble des exemples tant divisés en plusieurs parties historiques, elles-mêmes introduites par une présentation de la période couverte, l'ouvrage donne au lecteur un bagage culturel suffisant pour réussir cette preuve. Il permet aux étudiants préparant le CAPES ou l'agrégation d'anglais de se mettre à niveau pour l'analyse de films dans le cadre des concours. Il offre aux enseignants et aux candidats des pistes pédagogiques et des activités de classe pour exploiter les extraits de films.

Filmic Sociology Joyce Sebag, Jean-Pierre Durand, 2024-01-09. This book is an exploration of the intellectual resources offered by the hybridisation of sociology and cinema: practicing sociology or other human sciences through images and sound. In the age of the image, the book invites sociological research not only through the discipline's approach but also through the joint learning of techniques: shooting and sound recording, derushing, editing, etc., and film writing. Using concrete examples, the authors analyse what it means to think through the image, explain the different phases of making a sociological documentary, and question through sociological film the representations of reality and more specifically what remains invisible in the social world. The result is a reflective look at the theories and practices presented to better equip the sociologist filmmaker. Illustrated with numerous photographs that mark the history of documentary photography and film, the book is intended for both teachers, researchers, and students in all disciplines of the humanities and social sciences who practice video and photography or wish to discover their uses. Students in documentary and film schools, as well as students on information and communication programs, will also benefit from the book.

Introduction to Audiovisual Archives Peter Stockinger, 2013-02-07. Today, audiovisual archives and libraries have become very popular, especially in the field of collecting, preserving, and transmitting cultural heritage. However, the data from these archives or libraries—videos, images, sound tracks, etc.—constitute as such only potential cognitive resources for a given public or target community. They have to undergo more or less significant qualitative transformations in order to become user- or community-relevant intellectual goods. These qualitative transformations are performed through a series of concrete operations such as audiovisual text segmentation, content description, and indexing, pragmatic profiling, translation, etc. These and other operations constitute what we call the semiotic turn in dealing with digital audiovisual texts: corpora of texts or even entire audiovisual archives and libraries. They demonstrate practically and theoretically the well-known path from data to meta-data or from simple information to relevant knowledge, a problem that obviously directly influences the effective use, the social impact and relevancy, and therefore also the future of digital knowledge archives. It constitutes indeed the heart of a diversity of important R D programs and projects all over the world Shakespeare, from Stage to Screen Sarah Hatchuel, 2004-08-12 How is a Shakespearean play transformed when it is directed for the screen In this 2004 book Sarah Hatchuel uses literary criticism narratology performance history psychoanalysis and semiotics to analyse how the plays are fundamentally altered in their screen versions She identifies distinct strategies chosen by film directors to appropriate the plays Instead of providing just play by play or film by film analyses the book addresses the main issues of theatre film aesthetics making such theories and concepts accessible before applying them to practical cases Her book also offers guidelines for the study of sequences in Shakespearean adaptations and includes examples from all the major films from the 1899 King John through the adaptations by Olivier Welles and Branagh to Taymor s 2000 Titus and beyond This book is aimed at scholars teachers and students of Shakespeare and film studies providing a clear and logical apparatus with which to examine Shakespearean screen adaptations Theories of Information, Communication and Knowledge Fidelia Ibekwe-SanJuan, Thomas M Dousa, 2013-08-30 This book addresses some of the key questions that scientists have been asking themselves for centuries what is knowledge What is information How do we know that we know something How do we construct meaning from the perceptions of things Although no consensus exists on a common definition of the concepts of information and communication few can reject the hypothesis that information whether perceived as object or as process is a pre condition for knowledge Epistemology is the study of how we know things anglophone meaning or the study of how scientific knowledge is arrived at and validated francophone conception To adopt an epistemological stance is to commit oneself to render an account of what constitutes knowledge or in procedural terms to render an account of when one can claim to know something An epistemological theory imposes constraints on the interpretation of human cognitive interaction with the world It goes without saying that different epistemological theories will have more or less restrictive criteria to distinguish what constitutes knowledge from what is not If information is a pre condition for knowledge acquisition giving an account of how knowledge is acquired should impact our comprehension of information and communication as concepts While a lot has been written on the definition of these concepts less research has attempted to establish explicit links between differing theoretical conceptions of these concepts and the underlying epistemological stances This is what this volume attempts to do It offers a multidisciplinary exploration of information and communication as perceived in different disciplines and how those perceptions affect theories of knowledge Routledge Handbook of Descriptive Rhetorical Studies and World Languages Weixiao Wei, James Schnell, 2023-05-12 The Routledge Handbook of Descriptive Rhetorical Studies and World Languages offers a useful collection of papers that presents rhetorical analysis of the discoursal practice in different cultural settings Covering issues from America to Europe and Asia and topics from politics to media education to science agriculture to literature and so on the handbook describes how language can guide listeners interpretations alter their perceptions and shape their worldviews This book offers a solid foundation for rhetorical studies to become an essential discipline in arts and humanities engendering innovative theory and applications in areas such as linguistics literature history cultural studies political science and sociology This handbook will be crucial for students and researchers in areas such as literature and linguistics communication studies political science and arts and humanities in general This book will also be useful to social science education business law science and engineering departments due to its coverage of rhetoric in a multidisciplinary and multilingual context Chapter 16 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Cinematic perspectives on international law Olivier Corten, Francois Dubuisson, Martyna Falkowska-Clarys, 2021-04-13 The proposed volume consists of an edited collection within the new Melland Schill Guidebooks on International Law MSGIL series In line with the MSGIL objective of inclusiveness originality perspectivism and critical thought the book is the first of an intended series pertaining to perspectives related to the ways in which the arts influence the perception and attitude of the public towards international law and the manner this affects the discipline both in terms of its own development and in terms of its social legitimacy The book contrasts the narratives of international law depicted in cinema and TV productions with the corresponding narratives advanced by legal scholars It identifies a cognitive dissonance between them and ascertains its implications on general perceptions of international law

Animal Biographies Éric Baratay, 2022-08-15 What would we learn if animals could tell their own stories ric Baratay a pioneering researcher in animal histories in France applies his knowledge of historical methodologies to give voice to some of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries most interesting animals He offers brief yet innovative accounts of these animals lives in a way that challenges the reader s thinking about animals Baratay illustrates the need to develop a nonanthropocentric means of viewing the lives of animals and including animals themselves in the narrative of their lives Animal Biographies launches an all new investigation into the lives of animals and is a major contribution to the field of animal studies This English translation of ric Baratay s Biographies animales Des Vies retrouvées originally published in France in 2017 editions du Seuil uses firsthand accounts starting from the nineteenth century about specific animals who lived in Europe and the United States to reconstruct as best as possible their stories as they would have experienced them History is after all not just the domain of humans Animals have their own Baratay breaks the model of human exceptionalism to give us the biographies of some of history and literature s most famous animals The reader will catch a glimpse of storied lives as told by Modestine the donkey who carried Robert Louis Stevenson through the Alps Warrior the World War I horse made famous in Steven Spielberg s War Horse Islero the bull who gored Spain s greatest bullfighter and others Through these stories we discover their histories their personalities and their shared experiences with others of their species

Contemporary French Cinema Alan J. Singerman, Michèle Bissière, 2018-09-15 Like its French language companion volume Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe Alan Singerman and Michèle Bissière s Contemporary French Cinema A Student s Book offers a detailed

look at recent French cinema through its analyses of twenty notable and representative French films that have appeared since 1980 Sure to delight Anglophone fans of French film it can be used with equal success in English language courses and when paired with its companion volume dual language ones Acclaim for Le Cin ma fran ais contemporain Manuel de classe From Le Dernier M tro to Intouchables Bissi re and Singerman cover the latest trends of French cinema emphasizing context and analytical method as Singerman did in Apprentissage du cin ma fran ais Focus 2004 The authors offer a selection of films most French cinephiles will applaud and they incorporate insights from some of the best critical work on French cinema Students of French film will also find all the bibliographical pointers they need to dig deeper and instructors will appreciate the pedagogical components included in the chapters Jonathan Walsh Department of French Studies Wheaton College Massachusetts This remarkable book comes to us from two seasoned teachers and critics and beautifully complements an earlier work Alan Singerman s Apprentissage du cin ma fran ais The time period covered more targeted here than in the preceding text is admirably well chosen and the breakdown by broad category each offering multiple options guides the teacher while offering a choice among an abundance of interesting films The preliminary chapters both succinct and informative give students an excellent overview of French cinema as a whole and of the technical knowledge needed for film analysis Each of the subsequent chapters offers an indispensable introduction discussing the plot director production actors reception and context of the film in question and also provides a very useful filmography and bibliography an exemplary work Brigitte E Humbert Department of French and Francophone Studies Middlebury College

Television Advertising in Canadian Elections Kai Hildebrandt, 2006-01-01 Can the strategy of negative political advertising developed in the United States succeed in Canada or does this kind of advertising do more harm than good The year 1988 saw elections in both the United States and Canada It also saw a turning point in the tenor of television campaign advertising By the early 1990s there was a growing reliance upon negative political images and symbols This book is about that growing reliance While focusing on the use of attack ads Television Advertising in Canadian Elections provides a historical overview of the growth of negative advertising It includes a discussion of advertisers intentions and strategies an analysis of the ads played on both English language and French television and their impact and the ethics of political advertising This is the first book length investigation of negative political advertising in Canada Professional politicians as well as anyone interested in election politics journalism communication studies or advertising will find this an absorbing study

Multimedia Modeling, Modeling Multimedia Information And Systems - Proceedings Of The First International Workshop Ahmed Karmouch, 1999-09-24 Multimedia systems result from the merging of the computing communications and broadcasting industries This merging has been made possible today by the technical advances in high speed broadband networks computer desktop workstations and information storage and compression techniques Currently text and image are the predominant forms of information exchanged over the Internet However there are clear signs that the situation is rapidly changing with the recent emergence of multimedia applications in the area of education business e commerce and entertainment resulting therefore in increased consumption of network bandwidth and in the creation of a very large volume of information that needs to be processed and stored This trend has made strong demands on the multimedia modeling research community to develop new semantic models that will further facilitate the creation representation manipulation and animation of multimedia content with a better level of granularity than what is possible to achieve with today s multimedia information systems This volume explores issues associated with multimedia modeling information and systems and presents the current status of work in this field It covers a broad range of theoretical conceptual and practical topics and addresses the needs of a wide audience including researchers multimedia systems designers and users of multimedia systems
