

PREFACE

This report has been prepared as part of my grand project, as a part of MBA. The report is prepared with the view to include all the details regarding the project that I carried out.

The initial portion is the description and study of financial statement and the steel industry, its history and its current scenario. How the steel Sector has taken a full circle from earlier being private, later it being handed over to the Govt. and now once again with liberalization the sector is open to private players. After taking the macroscopic view, I have given a microscopic view of the sector by studying the major two companies those are TATA STEEL & SAIL. All the details of the companies where I have studied is mentioned in the initial part of the report. Next the second portion is regarding the core project – FINANCIAL STATEMENT ANALYSIS THROUGH RATIO ANALYSIS.

In this project I had taken various types of ratio for describing and for comparison of these both companies. Thus, as you go ahead the report will reveal minute details of the work that I have done in my grand project.
