Preface To Loves Labour Lost

William Shakespeare

Preface To Loves Labour Lost:

Loves Labour's Lost William Shakespeare, 1904

Love's Labor's Lost William Shakespeare, 1909

Love's Labours Lost William Shakespeare, 1969 John Dover Wilson's New Shakespeare published between 1921 and 1966

became the classic Cambridge edition of Shakespeare's plays and poems until the 1980s. The series long since out of print is now reissued. Each work is available both individually and as a set and each contains a lengthy and lively introduction, main text and substantial notes and glossary printed at the back. The edition which began with The Tempest and ended with The Sonnets put into practice the techniques and theories that had evolved under the New Bibliography. Remarkably by today's standards, although it took the best part of half a century to produce, the New Shakespeare involved only a small band of editors besides Dover Wilson himself. As the volumes took shape, many of Dover Wilson's textual methods acquired general acceptance and became an established part of later editorial practice, for example in the Arden and New Cambridge Shakespeares.

Labour's Lost William Shakespeare, 2001-04 I feel that I have spent half my career with one or another Pelican Shakespeare in my back pocket. Convenience, however, is the least important aspect of the new Pelican Shakespeare series. Here is an elegant and clear text for either the study or the rehearsal room; notes where you need them and the distinguished scholarship of the general editors, Stephen Orgel and A. R. Braunmuller, who understand that these are plays for performance as well as great texts for contemplation. Patrick Stewart: The distinguished Pelican Shakespeare series, which has sold more than four million copies, is now completely revised and repackaged. Each volume features authoritative, reliable texts; high-quality introductions and notes; new, more readable, trade-Trim size; an essay on the theatrical world of Shakespeare and essays on Shakespeare's life and the selection of texts.
