Edison Denisov Yuri Kholopov, Valeria Tsenova, 2003-12-16 First published in 1997 This is Volume 8 in a series of a planned eleven on Contemporary Music Studies Edison Denisov belongs to the generation of composers who came to the fore in the post Stalinist era and were destined to change the course of Russian music It would be hard to find a more impressive case of running against the stream in the history of Russian music This post war generation of composers grew up in the deadening atmosphere of totalitarianism behind the Iron Curtain under the sway of the personality cult and the enforced precepts of so called Socialist Realism Their maturity in the late 1940s coincided with persecutions of the best writers poets and theatrical figures Party resolutions on music and the struggle against formalism and cosmopolitanism This generation took up the challenge and embarked on its way proceeding from unconscious but mounting intellectual ferment to an open breach with official ideological doctrines towards more and more daring and independent artistic concepts The creative personality of Edison Denisov one of the leading Russian avant gardists was shaped under these conditions Starting in a Shostakovian style Denisov took a sharp turn toward the New Music of Boulez and Nono Denisov s creative individuality rooted in the past of Russian music and developed under the beneficial impact of 20th century composers like Stravinsky Bartok and Webern revealed itself to its best advantage in his avant garde compositions beginning with the cantata The Sun of the Incas In this monograph detailed analyses are given of Denisov s compositional techniques and his musical and literary works in an attempt to reveal the inner world of one of the foremost representatives of the Russian avant garde Classical Keyboard Music in Print, 1993, 1993 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Cummings,2000 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Die Künslertechnik des Violinspiels Demetrius Constantine Dounis,1921 The Life and Twelve-Note Music of Nikos Skalkottas Eva Mantzourani,2016-03-03 Nikos Skalkottas is perhaps the last great undiscovered composer of the twentieth century In the 1920s he was a promising young violinist and composer in Berlin and a student of Schoenberg who included him among his most gifted pupils It was only after his return to Greece in 1933 that Skalkottas became an anonymous and obscure figure working in complete isolation until his death in 1949 Most of his works remained unpublished and unperformed during his lifetime and although he is largely known for his folkloristic tonal pieces Skalkottas in fact concentrated predominantly on developing an idiosyncratic dodecaphonic musical language Eva Mantzourani provides here a comprehensive study of this fascinating yet under researched composer The book lavishly illustrated with musical examples is divided into three parts Part I comprises a critical biography that by drawing extensively on his letters and other writings reappraises the image of Skalkottas with which we are often presented The main focus of the book however is on Skalkottas's twelve note compositional processes since these characterize the majority of his output and are neither well known nor fully understood Part II presents the structural and technical features of his twelve note technique particularly the different types of sets and their manipulation and his approach to musical forms Part III consists of analytical case studies of several works presented chronologically which thus provide a diachronic framework within which Skalkottas's dodecaphonic compositional development can be more effectively viewed This book underlines Nikos Skalkottas's importance as a composer with a distinctive artistic personality whose work contributed to the development of twelve note compositional practice and who deserves a more significant position within the Western art music canon than that to which he is often assigned New York Magazine ,1985-05-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune
