The Poetical Works of John Trumbull, LL. D. John Trumbull, 1922 The Culture of Diagram John Bender, Michael Marrinan, 2010-01-20 The Culture of Diagram is about visual thinking Exploring a terrain where words meet pictures and formulas meet figures the book foregrounds diagrams as tools for blurring those boundaries to focus on the production of knowledge as process It outlines a history of convergence among diverse streams of data in real time from eighteenth century print media and the diagrammatic procedures in the pages of Diderot's Encyclopedia to the paintings of Jacques Louis David and mathematical devices that reveal the unseen worlds of quantum physics Central to the story is the process of correlation which invites observers to participate by eliciting leaps of imagination to fill gaps in data equations or sensations This book traces practices that ran against the grain of both Locke's clear and distinct ideas and Newton's causality practices greatly expanded by the calculus probabilities and protocols of data sampling Today's digital technologies are rooted in the ability of high speed computers to correct errors when returning binary data to the human sensorium High tech diagrams echo the visual structures of the Encyclopedia arraying packets of dissimilar data across digital spaces instead of white paper The culture of diagram broke with the certainties of eighteenth century science to expand the range of human experience Speaking across disciplines and discourses Bender and Marrinan situate our modernity in a new and revealing light Identity and Ideology Julie Candler Hayes, 1991 In a study drawing on contemporary and 18th century literary theory and philosophy social history and history of the theatre Hayes presents a reading of the dramas of Diderot and Sade and argues for a new understanding of the genre as a whole The Reinvention of Religious Music Sander van Maas, 2009-08-25 On the basis of a careful analysis of Olivier

Messiaen's work this book argues for a renewal of our thinking about religious music. Addressing his notion of a hyper-religious music of sounds and colors, it aims to show that Messiaen has broken new ground. His reinvention of religious music makes us again aware of the fact that religious music, if taken in its proper radical sense, belongs to the foremost of musical adventures. The work of Olivier Messiaen is well known for its inclusion of religious themes and gestures. These alone, however, do not seem enough to account for the religious status of the work. Arguing for a breakthrough toward the beyond on the basis of the synaesthetic experience of music, Messiaen invites a confrontation with contemporary theologians and post-secular thinkers. How to account for a religious breakthrough that is produced by a work of art? Starting from an analysis of his 1960s oratorio La Transfiguration de Notre Seigneur Jésus Christ, this book arranges a moderated dialogue between Messiaen and the music theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar, the phenomenology of revelation of Jean-Luc Marion, the rethinking of religion and technics in Jacques Derrida and Bernard Stiegler, and the Augustinian ruminations of Søren Kierkegaard and Jean-François Lyotard. Ultimately, this confrontation underscores the challenging yet deeply affirmative nature of Messiaen's music.

Apartment Stories Sharon Marcus, 1999. Apartment Stories works from the brilliant premise that urban culture and domestic architecture are indeed related in a number of unpredictable and mutually enlightening ways. Marcus's readings of Balzac and Zola novels in the context of the new urban architecture are absolutely superb and she remains subtle and unexpected at every step. Bruce Robbins, author of Feeling Global.

Youth on Edge Vincenzo Cicchelli, Sylvie Octobre, 2022-10-10. This book explores disrupted youth cohesion in France within the context of multiple ongoing global economic, migratory, social, political, and security-related crises. While these trends can be observed in numerous Western societies, France provides a unique case study of various anti-cosmopolitan and anti-Enlightenment movements shaping youth conditions and reconfiguring relationships between the individual, the group, and society. The authors undertook in-depth interviews with French young people between the ages of 18 to 30 years old to inquire into how they experience vivre ensemble (living together) in a time of rising economic inequalities and multicultural tensions. Through these findings, they invite decision-makers, politicians, educators, and parents to propose a renewed narrative of social cohesion for youth who are not disillusioned but deeply on edge.
