Premonitions The Kaya Anthology Of New Asian North American Poetry:

Premonitions Walter K. Lew, 1995 A anthology of poems first published performed or authored by North Americans of Asian descent featuring the work of seventy three poets Asian Diaspora Poetry in North America Benzi Zhang, 2007-12-12 Presenting a new way of reading that helps us discern some previously unnoticed or unnoticeable features of Asian diaspora poetry this volume highlights how poetry plays a significant role in mediating and defining cross cultural and transnational positions Asian diaspora poetry in North America is a rich body of poetic works that not only provide valuable material for us to understand the lives and experiences of Asian diasporas but also present us with an opportunity to examine some of the most important issues in current literary and cultural studies As a mode of writing across cultural and national borders these poetic works challenge us to reconsider the assumptions and meanings of identity nation home and place in a broad cross cultural context In recent postcolonial studies diaspora has been conceived not only as a process of migration in which people crossed and traversed the borders of different countries but also as a double relationship between different cultural origins With all its complexity and ambiguity associated with the experience of multi cultural mediation diaspora as both a process and a relationship suggests an act of constant repositioning in confluent streams that accommodate to multiple cultural traditions By examining how Asian diaspora poets maintain and represent their cultural differences in North America Zhang is able to seek new perspectives for understanding and analyzing the intrinsic values of Asian cultures that survive and develop persistently in North American societies Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang, 2004 This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee Cathy Song and Garrett Hongo who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions Asian American Poetry The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross section of the very best work of these young poets all under the age of forty including Timothy Liu Adrienne Su Sue Kwock Kim Rick Barot Brenda Shaughnessy Mong Lan as well as less familiar names A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear Asian American Poetry The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic developing part of the poetic world making it finally accessible to students scholars and poetry fans alike Asian Diaspora Poetry in North America , Modernism, Inc Jani Scandura, Michael Thurston, 2001 Drawing on a variety of interdisciplinary debates in cultural studies and contemporary theory Modernism Inc provides a new look at the relationship between modernism and postmodernism within the critical frame of twentieth century American culture Organized around the idea of incorporation embodiment repressed memory and advanced capitalism Modernism Inc covers a wide range of topics Josephine Baker s hot house style the president s penis in American political life myth making and the Hoover Dam trauma poetics and the Armenian genocide feminist kitsch and the recuperation of North America's Great Lady painters Gertrude Stein and Jewish Social Science the Reno Divorce Factory and the production of gender Andy Razaf and Black Bolshevism Collectively the essays suggest that the relationship between the modern and the postmodern is not one of rupture belatedness dilution or extremity but of haunting Modernism Inc looks at our ghosts and at the unspeakable secrets of modernity from which they're derived Contributors Maria Damon Walter Kalidjian Walter Lew Janet Lyon William J Maxwell Cary Nelson John Timberman Newcombe David G Nicholls Thomas Pepper Paula Rabinowitz Daniel Rosenberg Marlon Ross Jani Scandura Kathleen Stewart Julia Walker Narratives of Resistance Ana María Manzanas Calvo, Jesús Benito Sánchez, 1999 The articles included in this collection cover a wide range of literatures and topics but most of them address the ways in which ethnic writers create themselves in opposition and resistance to the mainstream These narratives of opposition and resistance do not equate protest narratives but represent a consciously subversive effort There is agency and creativity in the confrontation for the majority of these narratives are not only demystifying an old world and order but creating a new one there narratives are not reproducing as much as producing and forging culture and literature The articles we present resist not only the politics of traditional canon formation but the politics of cultural nationalism as well they challenge the margins as well as the center With this revisionist agenda the aim of this collection is to invite readers to further their rethinking of American and Caribbean literatures Q & A Queer And Asian David L. Eng, Alice Y. Hom, 1998-08-24 What does it mean to be queer and Asian American at the turn of the century The writers activists essayists and artists who contribute to this volume consider how Asian American racial identity and queer sexuality interconnect in mutually shaping and complicating ways Their collective aim in the words of the editors is to articulate a new conception of Asian American racial identity its heterogeneity hybridity and multiplicity concepts that after all underpinned the Asian American moniker from its very inception Q A approaches matters of identity from a variety of points of view and academic disciplines in order to explore the multiple crossings of race and ethnicity with sexuality and gender Drawing together the work of visual artists fiction writers community organizers scholars and participants in roundtable discussions the collection gathers an array of voices and experiences that represent the emerging communities of a queer Asian America Collectively these contributors contend that Asian American studies needs to be more attentive to issues of sexuality and that queer studies needs to be more attentive to other aspects of difference especially race and ethnicity Vigorously rejecting the notion that a symmetrical relationship between race and homosexuality would weaken lesbian gay and queer movements the editors refuse to believe that a desirably queer world is one in which we remain perpetual aliens queer houseguests in a queer nation Foreign Accents Steven G. Yao, 2010-10-27 Foreign Accents sets forth a historical poetics of verse by writers of Chinese descent in the U S from the early twentieth century to the present With readings of works by Ezra Pound Li young Lee Marilyn Chin Ha Jin and John Yau this study charts the dimensions of Asian American verse as an evolving and contested counterpoetic formation Syncopations Jed
