The background of the cover is a romantic still life. It features three vibrant red roses with dark green leaves, scattered across a fabric that is draped in soft, flowing folds. The fabric is a mix of light pink and white, creating a delicate, ethereal atmosphere. In the center, a thin gold chain is coiled into a loose circle. Resting within this circle are two gold wedding rings, one slightly overlapping the other. The overall composition is soft and intimate, evoking the themes of love and commitment.

The Covenant of Marriage Study Guide Mark Johnson, 2021-02-04 This twelve week study shows how the historic understanding of Covenant helps us build a love for a lifetime Marriage Marriage is not what our culture or we say it is What is the one esh relationship that was designed by God When two enter a Covenant the identity of each party enters the other This produces a bond of shared identity between the two and alters the nature of each what God has joined together God's instructions are logical consequences of these realities We love the other as we love ourselves because the other is now part of us Our hearts want to love but we do not love consistently Why Because our guidance system our old sense of self interest pulls in other directions Covenant is not just a tie that binds It is also a plan that teaches us what to do why we do these things and how we become able to do them Our married self is a new self Obedience does not oppose our nature it authentically expresses our new self and new bond Shifting our guidance system to follow God's plan and building this new life is the path to the best Marriage resources but never found one that fit our style and that really resonated with the couples we were coaching and counseling. Finally we decided to develop our own. We completed the first draft of this manual in 2010 and started using it in our weekend intensive sessions where Teresa and I meet with a couple for approximately 10 to 12 hours from Friday afternoon through Saturday all day. As we used this tool we have been constantly writing, rewriting, and adding as questions and issues arose that we did not initially include in this resource. We would often leave the counseling room that Friday, come home, and add or modify a section based on a situation we saw or anticipated seeing the next day in the intensive. Though we have never made this tool available to anyone other than the couples we have personally worked with, our clients have urged us to share this resource as they were genuinely moved and changed by the information contained herein. What you hold in your hands is the result of this process. This product was not developed in a classroom using a lot of relationship theory but rather forged in the crucible of real life situations and circumstances.
