Prepare to Shed Them Now, 1968 Prepare to Shed Them Now George R. Sims, 1968 Prepare to Shed Them Now. The Ballads of George R. Sims. Selected and Introduced by Arthur Calder-Marshall. [With Illustrations.] George R. Sims, Arthur Calder MARSHALL, 1968 The Ascent of the Detective Haia Shpayer-Makov, 2011-09-29 Explores the diverse and often arcane world of English police detectives during the formative period of their profession from 1842 until the First World War with special emphasis on the famed detective branch established at Scotland Yard Screen Culture and the Social Question, 1880-1914 Ludwig Vogl-Bienek, Richard Crangle, 2014-01-20 Essays exploring how reformers and charities used the magic lantern to raise public awareness of poverty Public performances using the magic or optical lantern became a prominent part of the social fabric of the late nineteenth century Drawing on a rich variety of primary sources Screen Culture and the Social Question 1880 1914 investigates how the magic lantern and cinematograph used at public lectures church services and electoral campaigns became agents of social change The essays examine how social reformers and charitable organizations used the art of projection to raise public awareness of the living conditions of the poor and the destitute as they argued for reform and encouraged audiences to work to better their lot and that of others American Popular Music and Its Business the late Russell Sanjek, 1988-07-28 Volume two concentrates exclusively on music activity in the United States in the nineteenth century Among the topics discussed are how changing technology affected the printing of music the development of sheet music publishing the growth of the American musical theater popular religious music black music including spirituals and ragtime music during the Civil War and finally music in the era of monopoly including such subjects as copyright changing technology and distribution invention of the phonograph copyright revision and the establishment of Tin Pan Alley Managing the Arts in the Curriculum Michael Marland, Rick Rogers, 2002 This text gives guidance on managing and integrating the Arts across all aspects of a school it highlights the benefits of Arts education for the school and the community it represents Pictures of Poverty Lydia Jakobs, 2021-10-26 From Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist to George Sims's How the Poor Live illustrated accounts of poverty were en vogue in Victorian Britain Poverty was also a popular subject on the screen whether in dramatic retellings of well known stories or in documentary photographs taken in the slums London and its street life were the preferred setting for George Robert Sims's rousing ballads and the numerous magic lantern slide series and silent films based on them Sims was a popular journalist and dramatist whose articles short stories theatre plays and ballads discussed overcrowding drunkenness prostitution and child poverty in dramatic and heroic episodes from the lives and deaths of the poor Richly illustrated and drawing from many previously unknown sources Pictures of Poverty is a comprehensive account of the representation of poverty throughout the Victorian period whether disseminated in newspapers illustrated books and lectures presented on the theatre stage or projected on the screen in magic lantern and film performances Detailed case studies reveal the intermedial context of these popular pictures of poverty and their mobility across genres With versatile author George R Sims as the starting point this study explores the influence of visual media in historical discourses about poverty and the highly controversial role of the Victorian state in poor relief

Transatlantic Stage Stars in Vaudeville and Variety L. Woods,2016-09-23 This book shows eminent actors performing under stringent conditions in vaudeville It was a strange notion in 1900 that leading lights of the legitimate stage would ever join a bill of turns with everything from song and dance to criminals regaling crowds with their exploits It chronicles renowned actors showing rough fare in rough times A Mighty Mass of Brick and Smoke ,2016-09-12 Of all eras of London s history the Victorian and Edwardian city continues to stimulate the literary visual and popular imaginations like no other

This collection explores the unique relationship between the literary and more broadly artistic imagination and experience of the Victorian and Edwardian city It includes some major figures such as Wordsworth Dickens and James but also other writers and artists who are all but forgotten Bringing together some of the leading scholars working on representations of Victorian and Edwardian London this collection will be of interest to scholars researchers and students working on literary London and more broadly the urban in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries John Betjeman William S. Peterson,2006 Sir John Betjeman 1906 1984 Poet Laureate was probably the most widely read English poet of the twentieth century Because of his frequent appearances on radio and television and his fervent devotion to the preservation of England s architectural heritage his face and voice became familiar to millions Few other poets of any century have had such a powerful influence on their contemporaries This bibliography lists and describes all of his known writings including his own books ephemera contributions to periodicals and to books by others lectures and radio and television programmes Other categories such as editorships music settings and dramatic adaptations of his poems recordings and interviews are also included as well as a section devoted to writings about him Manuscripts and drafts of all his works are described in detail This enormous body of material is thoroughly indexed cross referenced and in most cases annotated Now at last the activities of this remarkable man both a poet and a cultural phenomenon can be seen in their full breadth and complexity Into
