Practicing What We Teach Renee J. Martin, 1995-08-31 Focusing on the efforts of teacher educators struggling to meaningfully address issues of race class and gender in their classrooms Practicing What We Teach goes beyond the realm of the theoretical to link multicultural theory to actual classroom practice In so doing the contributors expose some of the stark realities of addressing issues of diversity in institutions where there has traditionally been little research or support for multicultural efforts Shared classroom experience by teacher educators creates a new template for thinking about diversity as the reader is guided through the reconstruction of pedagogies and classroom approaches that encourage students to think reflectively and analytically about the nature of their experiences in American society Adapting to Cultural Pluralism in Urban Classrooms Namulundah Florence,2020-12-28 This book helps teachers explore the origins of differing value structures in safe forums It uses guided cross cultural exchanges to help break down prejudices and foster an appreciation of other cultures and the essence of a common humanity Acknowledging the inextricable link between cultural and structural factors in the plight of vulnerable student populations this work focuses on how to help counter prevailing disparities in perceptions and expectations within school settings Designed primarily for teacher candidates this book offers educators a forum for recognizing the impact of primary backgrounds in teaching and learning Adapting to Cultural Pluralism in Urban Classrooms focuses on four elements in the teaching learning process school climate the views and expectations of teachers in solidarity with principals and policy makers teacher interactions with students and parents and the centrality of reflection to improve practice It offers tools to support cultural adaptations that enhance the academic success of inner city students served by predominantly white and more privileged teachers Research in Education ,1973 A Knowledge Base for Teacher Education and Development: Teacher study and teaching competence ,2002 Handbook of Research on Race, Culture, and Student Achievement Keengwe, Jared,2023-01-13 There is growing pressure on teachers and other educators to understand and adopt culturally relevant pedagogies as well as strategies to work with diverse groups of races cultures and languages that are represented in classrooms Establishing sound cross cultural pedagogy is also critical given that racial cultural and linguistic integration has the potential to increase academic success for all learners The Handbook of Research on Race Culture and Student Achievement highlights cross cultural perspectives challenges and opportunities of providing equitable educational opportunities for marginalized students and improving student achievement Additionally it examines how race and culture impact student achievement in an effort to promote cultural competence equity inclusion and social justice in education Covering topics such as identity student achievement and global education this major reference work is ideal for researchers scholars academicians librarians policymakers practitioners educators and students Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation Francine P. Peterman,2005-05-06 Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents an argument for and invites critical examination of teacher preparation and assessment practices in light of both the complexity and demands of urban settings and the theories of learning and learning to teach that guide teacher education practices This dynamic approach distinguishes the authors stance on urban teacher assessment as one that can help address social justice issues related to gender race socioeconomic class and other differences and at the same time promote the professional development of all educators engaged in the process of learning to teach The contextually bound sociocultural stance that informs this book promises greater teacher and student achievement Culminating six years of vital dialogue and focused local activity among teachers and teacher educators from institutions in the Urban Network to Improve Teacher Education Designing Performance Assessment Systems for Urban Teacher Preparation presents the historical context that was examined for this work a theoretical framework to undergrad teacher preparation assessment and design principles to guide the development of assessment systems four case studies of participants struggles and successes in designing and implementing these systems and a discussion of the importance of context and current trends in assessment practices in urban teaching This volume is particularly relevant for university and school based teacher educators who help prepare teachers to work in urban schools and for personnel in state departments of education and other agencies who are responsible for certification and beginning teacher support While the focus is on preparing teachers for urban settings the theoretical and practical foundations and the case studies have broad implications and provide useful insights for anyone involved in developing and using performance assessment systems teacher educators university and school administrators classroom teachers and educational researchers
