Arts and Creativity in East and Southeast Asian Preschools Alfredo Bautista, 2025-08-20 This book is based on the theoretical notion of glocalization which is understood as the hybridization of global and local perspectives It brings together contributions from Asian preschool stakeholders specializing in arts and creativity who present glocal pedagogical practices in the art forms of visual arts music drama dance and in multi modal activities that integrate multiple art forms The chapters provide Asian preschool teachers with insights on how to design implement and or evaluate high quality classroom activities These insights help maximize children s creativity while being realistic and suitable to local preschools as well as aligned with the expectations values and norms of traditional Asian societies The chapters are primarily oriented to practice and also include conceptual and or theoretical elaborations intended to ground and justify teachers pedagogical choices The various chapters also enhance teachers pedagogical repertoires to benefit children s creative learning experiences in the arts This edited book serves as a valuable guide for preschool stakeholders in Asia including teachers and childcare practitioners both pre and in service school leaders head teachers area coordinators vice principals principals teacher educators curriculum designers consultants professional development providers and educational researchers in arts and creativity

Musician-Teacher Collaborations Catharina Christophersen, Ailbhe Kenny, 2018-01-09 Musician Teacher Collaborations Altering the Chord explores the dynamics between musicians and teachers within educational settings illustrating how new musical worlds are discovered and accessed through music in education initiatives An international array of scholars from ten countries present leading debates and issues both theoretical and empirical in order to identify and expand upon key questions How are visiting musicians perceived by various stakeholders What opportunities and challenges do musicians bring to educational spaces Why are such initiatives often seen as saving children music and education The text is organized into three parts Critical Insights presents new theoretical frameworks and concepts providing alternative perspectives on musician teacher collaboration Crossing Boundaries addresses the challenges faced by visiting musicians and teaching artists in educational contexts while discussing the contributions of such music in education initiatives Working Towards Partnership tackles some dominant narratives and perspectives in the field through a series of empirically based chapters discussing musician teacher collaboration as a field of tension In twenty chapters Musician Teacher Collaborations offers critical insights into the pedagogical role music plays within educational frameworks The geographical diversity of its contributors ensures varied and context specific arguments while also speaking to the larger issues at play When musicians and teachers collaborate one is in the space of the other and vice versa Musician Teacher Collaborations analyzes the complex ways in which these spaces are inevitably altered
