novices to prepare whole homilies for criticism presents too many possibilities for failure and thus discouragement With its step by step homiletical exercises Making Good Preaching Better gives students greater possibilities of the joy of success inputting together entire homilies one step at a time Making Good Preaching Better offers three minute oral exercises to be performed before a video camera Each exercise uses the theological homiletical principles explained in that chapter and includes suggestions on how to conduct the video lab sessions without provoking dread but rather by promoting affirmation Fourteen homilies by the author and others are supplied for both professionals and novices to critique To supplement the instruction recommendations for additional readings are provided at the end of each chapter Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy seminarians and those in Roman Catholic diaconate formation programs will benefit from this practical textbook

Reverend Rueter wrote this book asking several questions How does rhetoric agree with Christian theology Why aren't homiletics books laid out as teaching tools and Why don't we teach homilists the skills of rhetoric He answers with Making Good Preaching Better Alvin C Rueter Ph D a lutheran pastor conducts preaching workshops and teaches homiletics in the Formation Program for Permanent Deacons for the Archdiocese of St Paul and Minneapolis He also teaches homiletics at the School of Theology St John's University Collegeville Minnesota He also hosts and produces a weekly radio program Sing for Joy and for several years wrote a monthly column People Centered Preaching for Emphasis He earned a Ph D in speech communication from the University of Minnesota
