concise encyclopedic reference profiles more than 800 British poets Margaret Oliphant and George Meredith Rebecca N. Mitchell, 2019 The Yearbook of English Studies for 2019 edited by Rebecca N Mitchell brings together two quintessentially Victorian writers Margaret Oliphant 1828 1897 and George Meredith 1828 1909 This volume leverages recently renewed interest and increased access to Oliphant's and Meredith's oeuvres Edith Wharton and the Visual Arts Emily J. Orlando, 2007 This work explores Edith Wharton's career long concern with a 19th century visual culture that limited female artistic agency and expression Wharton repeatedly invoked the visual arts as a medium for revealing the ways that women's bodies have been represented as passive sexualized infantilized sickly dead Well versed in the Italian masters Wharton made special use of the art of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood particularly its penchant for producing not portraits of individual women but instead icons onto whose bodies male desire is superimposed Rethinking Orientalism Reina Lewis, 2004-09-24 The oppressed yet highly sexualized woman of the Muslim harem is arguably the pivotal figure of Western orientalism Yet as Reina Lewis demonstrates while orientalist thinking had recently been challenged Western understandings of Middle Eastern culture remain limited This book presents alternative dialogues between Ottoman and Western women Lewis examines from the position of cultural theory the published autobiographical accounts about segregated life of self identified Oriental women Demetra Vaka Brown Halide Edib Zeyneb Hanum Melek Hanum and Grace Ellison Bringing her subjects vividly to life Lewis uses these texts to challenge the Western orientalist stereotypes that have become commonplace within postcolonial theory Discoveries: Preraphaelites Laurence Des Cars, 2000-05 This study of Pre Raphaelite painters and poets reveals a style steeped in mythology and literary allusion and popular today with lovers of romantic art and poetry Includes bibliography documents section list of illustrations index 125 illustrations 95 in color Depictions of Children and the Adult's Journey in the Arts Margarita Georgieva, 2017-11-06 Why do adults write about the child and why do they choose to depict children This book looks at various examples from literature art and film to analyze aspects of adults outlook on the child and what it tells us about the adult It pays special attention to the eye motif as well as looking watching and representing children It outlines what might become an interesting topic of analysis for other studies namely the idea that the adult's journey to self actualization passes through writing for and about children Rather than drawing major conclusions the book opens venues for further thought on the topics treated It also brings together works that might not have been compared or contrasted before so that the reader can acquire a broader view of the threads that connect literature art and film Wilde's Wiles Annette M. Transfiguration Stephen Cheeke, 2016 Transfiguration explores the work of John Ruskin Robert Browning Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Walter Pater treating in particular the ways in which they engaged with the Christian content of their subject and in Pater's case how the art of Christianity was contrasted with classical sculpture Stephen Cheeke examines two related phenomena idolatry a false substitution a sexual betrayal and the poetics of transfiguration to elevate or glorify subject matter not thought of as conventionally poetic to praise Central to the book is the question of the translation of religion into art and aesthetics a process which supposedly undergirds the advent of the museum age and makes possible the idea of a religion of art as a phenomenon of late century Aestheticism Such a phenomenon is prepared for however through the engagement with Christian painting and classical sculpture in the work of these four writers All four thought carefully about the ways in which a particular mimetic impulse of making live in artworks could be connected to religious experience This meant exploring the nature of the link between seeing and believing visualising in order to conceive to verify but also in the sense of being acted upon by the visible All four wrote about the great power of artworks to transfigure the objects of their attention In each case there emerges the possibility of a secret sexual knowledge hiding within or lying on the other side of the sensuous knowledge of aesthesis All four wondered whether this was inherently hostile to Christianity or whether it may finally be an accommodation within it

Jane Morris Wendy Parkins, 2013-04-15 A scholarly monograph devoted to Jane Morris an icon of Victorian art whose face continues to grace a range of Pre Raphaelite merchandise Described by Henry James as a dark silent medieval woman Jane Burden Morris has tended to remain a rather one dimensional figure in subsequent accounts This book however challenges the stereotype of Jane Morris as silent model reclusive invalid and unfaithful wife Drawing on extensive archival research as well as the biographical and literary tradition surrounding William Morris and Dante Gabriel Rossetti the book argues that Jane Morris is a figure who complicates current understandings of Victorian female subjectivity because she does not fit neatly into Victorian categories of feminine identity She was a working class woman who married into middle class affluence an artist's model who became an accomplished embroiderer and designer and an apparently reclusive silent invalid who was the lover of Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Wilfred Scawen Blunt Jane Morris and the Burden of History particularly focuses on textual representations in letters diaries memoirs and novels from the Victorian period onwards in order to investigate the cultural transmission and resilience of the stereotype of Jane Morris Drawing on recent reconceptualisations of gender auto biography and afterlives this book urges readers to think differently about an extraordinary woman and about life writing in the Victorian period
