Presence Of Mind Museums And The Spirit Of Learning:

Presence of Mind American Association of Museums,1999 A comprehensive and wide ranging look at the current state and future prospects of education within the museum at the beginning of the 21st century Contributors are past winners of the annual Award for Excellence and the John Cotton Dana Award presented by the Education Committee of AAM Authors include Diane Frankel Michael Spock Mary Ellen Munley Elaine Gurian Bonnie Pitman and Alberta Sebolt George among other leading educators and museum professionals Civilizing the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian,2006 Drawing on her experience working in and with museums in the US and throughout the world Author Elaine Heumann Gurian explores the possibilities for making museums more central and relevant to society Learning from Museums John H. Falk,Lynn D. Dierking,2018-10-16 This is the second edition of John H Falk and Lynn D Dierking s ground breaking book Learning from Museums While the book still focuses on why how what when and with whom people learn from their museum experiences the authors further investigate the extension of museums beyond their walls and the changing perceptions of the roles that museums increasingly play in the 21st century with respect to the publics they serve and those they would like to serve This new edition offers an updated and synthesized version of the Contextual Model of Learning as well as the latest advances in free choice learning research theory and practice in order to provide readers a highly readable and informative understanding of the personal sociocultural and physical dimensions of the museum experience Falk and Dierking also fill in gaps in the 1st edition Falk s research focuses increasingly on the self related needs that museums meet and these findings enhance the personal context chapter Dierking s work delves deeply into the macro sociocultural dimensions of learning a topic not discussed in the sociocultural chapter in the first edition Emphasizing the importance of time and space the second edition adds an entirely new chapter to describe the important dimension of time They also insert findings from the burgeoning field of neuroscience Latter chapters of the book discuss the evolving role of museums in the rapidly changing Information Learning Society of the 21st century New examples and suggestions highlight the ways that the new understandings of learning can help museum practitioners reinvent how museums can and should support the public s lifelong life wide and life deep learning Reinventing the Museum Gail Anderson,2004-03-09 This reader brings together 35 seminal articles that reflect the museum world s ongoing conversation with itself and the public about what it means to be a museum one that is relevant and responsive to its constituents and always examining and reexamining its operations policies collections and programs In conjunction with the editor s introductory material and recommended additional readings these articles will help students grasp the essentials of the dialogue and guide them on where to turn for further details and developments Centering the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian,2021-09-14 Drawing on Elaine Heumann Gurian s fifty years of museum experience Centering the Museum calls on the profession to help visitors experience their shared humanity and find social uses for public buildings in order to make museums more central and useful to everyone in difficult times Following the same format as Civilizing the Museum this new volume includes material written especially for a re emergent time and relevant public lectures not included in the author s previous book Divided into six separate content clusters with over twenty different essays the book identifies many small subtle ways museums can become welcoming to more and to all Drawing on her extensive experience as a deputy director senior advisor to high profile government museums lecturer and teacher around the world the author provides recommendations for inclusive actions by intertwining sociological thinking with practical decision making strategies Writing reflectively Elaine also provides heritage students and professionals with insights that will help move their careers and organizations into more equitable yet successful terrain Centering the Museum will be an excellent companion volume to Civilizing the Museum and as such will be a useful support for emerging museum leaders It will be especially interesting to academics and students engaged in the study of cultural administration as well as museum and heritage practitioners working around the world Great Tours! Barbara Abramoff Levy, Sandra Mackenzie Lloyd, Susan Porter Schreiber, 2002-02-07 Creating tours that are interesting and educational for visitors and guides is a challenge every historic site faces Great Tours helps you focus clearly on the material culture and significance of your site and then shows you how to use that focus to train and energize your guides You will be able to move your tours to a fresh new level that is engaging and educational for visitors of all ages and abilities Readings and workshop activities frame the process throughout and allow you to develop what is most appropriate for your site while working to strike a realistic balance between ideals and every day reality Great Tours offers a unique combination of theoretical guidance and practical activities supplemented by reproducible forms and a bibliography and index that make it an invaluable resource for anyone involved with planning tours and training guides Published in cooperation with the National Trust for Historic Preservation Visit their web page Museum Management and Marketing Richard Sandell, Robert R. Bedford, 2016-06-16 Leslie Bedford former director of the highly regarded Bank Street College museum leadership program expands the museum professional's vision of exhibitions beyond the simple goal of transmitting knowledge to the visitor. Her view of exhibitions as interactive emotional embodied imaginative experiences opens a new vista for those designing them. Using examples both from her own work at the Boston Children's Museum and from other institutions around the globe Bedford offers the museum professional a bold new vision built around narrative imagination and aesthetics merging the work of the educator with that of the artist. It is important reading for all museum professionals. Building Type Basics for Museums Arthur Rosenblatt, 2001 Tremendous opportunities are opening up as architecture becomes more generalized and firms accept commissions for a widening range of building types. To take advantage of these opportunities architects need instant information on the general issues materials systems requirements and general design guidelines associated with different types of structures. Building Type Basics books fulfill this need. Building Type Basics for Museums is a one stop source for the essential information architects need to fast start the design process. In this book author Arthur Rosenblatt draws upon the expertise of leading architects from around the world to present all aspects of museum and cultural facility design. This book provides critical information on the process potential problems design concerns and recent trends in museum and cultural facility design along with complete coverage of energy issues mechanical systems and structural concerns as well as acoustic control lighting internal traffic security and other important topics. This indispensable guide asks and answers twenty questions that frequently arise in the early phases of a project commission. Provides project photographs diagrams floor plans sections and details. Engineering consultants will also find a wealth of information to help them tackle museum commissions of all kinds. Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today Joni Boyd Acuff, Laura Evans, 2014-07-08 Aimed at museum educators Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today seeks to marry museum and multicultural education theories. It reveals how the union of these theories yields more equitable educational practices and guides museum educators to address misrepresentation exclusivity accessibility and educational inequality. This contemporary text is directive it encourages museum educators to consider the critical multicultural education theoretical framework in their day to day functions in order to illuminate and combat shortcomings at the crux of museum education. Museum Educators as Change Agents Inclusion versus Exclusion Collaboration with Diverse Audiences Responsive Pedagogy. This book adopts a broad definition of multiculturalism which names not only race and ethnicity as concerns but also gender sexual orientation religion ability age and class. While focusing on these various facets of identity the authors demonstrate how museums are social systems that should offer comprehensive diverse educational experiences not only through exhibitions but through other educational activities The authors pull from their own research and practical experiences which exemplify how museums have been and can be attentive to these areas of identity Multiculturalism in Art Museums Today is hopeful and inspiring as it identifies and commends the positive and effective practices that some museum educators have enacted in an effort to be inclusive Museum educators are at the front line interacting with the public on a daily basis Thus these educators can be the real vanguard of change modeling critical multicultural behavior and practices

Essays on Museum Practice María Verónica Valarino de Abreu,

Curating Under Pressure Janet Marstine, Svetlana Mintcheva, 2020-07-14 Curating Under Pressure breaks the silence surrounding curatorial self censorship and shows that it is both endemic to the practice and ubiquitous Contributors map the diverse forms such self censorship takes and offer creative strategies for negotiating curatorial integrity This is the first book to look at pressures to self censor and the curatorial responses to these pressures from a wide range of international perspectives The book offers examples of the many creative strategies that curators deploy to negotiate pressures to self censor and gives evidence of curators political acumen ethical sagacity and resilience over the long term It also challenges the assumption that self censorship is something to be avoided at all costs and suggests that a decision to self censor may sometimes be politically and ethically imperative Curating Under Pressure serves as a corrective to the assumption that censorship pressures render practitioners impotent It demonstrates that curatorial practice under pressure offers inspiring models of agency ingenuity and empowerment Curating Under Pressure is a highly original and intellectually ambitious volume and as such will be of great interest to students and academics in the areas of museum studies curatorial and gallery studies art history studio art and arts administration The book will also be an essential tool for museum practitioners The Journal of Museum Education ,2006 The Last "Darky" Louis Chude-Sokei,2006-01-16 Examines the use of Africa as a figure in the Harlem Renaissance and looks at the place of that movement within a wider Black modernism Engaged Anthropology Michelle Hegmon,B. Sunday Eiselt,2005-01-01 This collection of essays is based on the 2005 Society for American Archaeology symposium and presents research that epitomizes Richard I Ford s approach of engaged anthropology This transdisciplinary approach integrates archaeological research with perspectives from ethnography history and ecology and engages the anthropologist with Native partners and with socio natural landscapes Research papers largely focus on the U S Southwest but also consider other areas of North America issues related to museums collections and indigenous approaches to materials research The Interpreters Training Manual for Museums Mary Kay Cunningham,2004 The Interpreters Training Manual for Museums helps institutions develop a customized training program for their interpreters Focusing on social interaction this book combines group exercises written and oral activities and interactive lectures to teach interpreters how to facilitate meaningful conversations with visitors
