Presentation of Self in Everyday Life Erving Goffman, 1990 In what the General Practitioner called this intelligent searching work the author of Stigma and Asylums presents an analysis of the structures of social encounters from the perspective of the dramatic performance He shows us exactly how people use such fixed props as houses clothes and job situations how they combine in teams resembling secret societies and how they adopt discrepant roles and communicate out of character Professor Goffman takes us backstage too into the regions where people both prepare their images and relax from them and he demonstrates in painful detail what can happen when a performance falls flat The Presentation of Self
