Serials Roy Kinnard,2015-08-13 Destination Moon George Pal s 1950 Technicolor epic is generally cited as the first noteworthy science fiction film Usually ignored or casually dismissed in genre histories are the serials the low budget chapterplays exhibited as Saturday matinee fare and targeted almost exclusively at children Lacking stars and top notch writers or directors the serials went largely unnoticed and unacknowledged by either critics or by the film industry Yet serials were financially important to the Hollywood studios and were often free to exploit risky or outlandish subjects that producers of distinguished movies would not touch Influential serials such as The Phantom Empire 1935 and Flash Gordon 1936 finally brought science fiction themes to the big screen Those serials and 29 others are exhaustively covered in this work which provides complete cast and credit information along with plot descriptions and historical commentary for each serial Video distributors if available are also listed My Colorful Poetic Journey Suzanne Zurilgen Strauss,2024-08-07

what my English ancestors went through coming to America from England in 1822 You will hear my heart singing through pages of poetry or lamentations to others I have even included speeches I wrote while being a Toastmaster I also expressed deeply felt eroticism in my poetry section called Erotic Awakenings where I express personal feelings of love and lust Most of the book is written in rhyming couplets either while detailing an adventure or longing for love and acceptance Also many of my writings are letters to family and friends Leaving home at 18 to travel abroad captures the occasional youthful distress but more of the excitement of discovering the world around me Follow me through two marriages and many more adventures both in California and in New Hampshire but mostly be part of my many adventures abroad Jump on the Strauss plane and be captivated by the magic the mystery and the machinations of a poetic mind More Than Meets the Eye Bob

Rehak,2018-03-13 A rare look at the role of special effects in creating fictional worlds and transmedia franchises From comic book universes crowded with soaring superheroes and shattering skyscrapers to cosmic empires set in far off galaxies today's fantasy blockbusters depend on visual effects Bringing science fiction from the studio to your screen through film television or video games these special effects power our entertainment industry More Than Meets the Eye delves into the world of fantastic media franchises to trace the ways in which special effects over the last 50 years have become central not just to transmedia storytelling but to worldbuilding performance and genre in contemporary blockbuster entertainment More Than Meets the Eye maps the ways in which special effects build consistent storyworlds and transform genres while traveling from one media platform to the next Examining high profile franchises in which special effects have played a constitutive role such as Star Trek Star Wars The Matrix and The Lord of the Rings as well as more contemporary franchises like Pirates of the Caribbean and Harry Potter Bob Rehak analyzes the ways in which production practices developed alongside the cultural work of industry professionals By studying social and cultural factors such as fan interaction this book provides a context for understanding just how much multiplatform storytelling has come to define these megahit franchises More Than Meets the Eye explores the larger history of how physical and optical effects in postwar Hollywood laid the foundation for modern transmedia franchises and argues that special effects are not simply an adjunct to blockbuster filmmaking but central agents of an entire mode of production
