The Changing World of Contemporary South Asian Poetry in English Mitali P. Wong, M. Yousuf Saeed, 2019-07-02
This collection uses a transnational approach to study contemporary English language poetry composed by poets of South Asian origin. The poetry contains themes, motifs, and critiques of social changes, and the contributors seek to encapsulate the continually changing environments that these contemporary poets write about. The contributors show that English language poetry in South Asia is hybridized with imagery and figurative language adapted from the vernacular languages of South Asia. The chapters examine women's issues, concerns of marginalized groups such as the Dalit community, and the people of Northeastern India, social changes in Sri Lanka, the changing society of Pakistan, and the formation of the identity in the several nation states that resulted from the British colony of India.

The Soundtrack Album Paul N. Reinsch, Laurel Westrup, 2020-02-17
The Soundtrack Album: Listening to Media offers the first sustained exploration of the soundtrack album as a distinctive form of media. Soundtrack albums have been part of our media and musical landscape for decades, enduring across formats from vinyl and 8 tracks to streaming playlists. This book makes the case that soundtrack albums are more than promotional tools for films, television shows, or video games; they are complex media texts that reward a detailed analysis. The collection's contributors explore a diverse range of soundtrack albums from Super Fly to Stranger Things, revealing how these albums change our understanding of the music and film industries and the audio-visual relationships that drive them. An excellent resource for students of Music Media Studies and Film Screen Media courses, The Soundtrack Album offers interdisciplinary perspectives and opens new areas for exploration in music and media studies.
