

THE PRETENDER™

HOW TO PLAY

AGE 12+ | PLAYERS 4-8 | MINUTES 15+

The Pretender is a hilarious game of mini-charades, bluffing and suspicion. Each round, every player has the same identity except for the Pretender. The aim of the game for the other players is to discover who the Pretender is, while the Pretender must take their way through the game, evading detection and trying to work out what everyone else is.

SETUP

To start the game, lay the cards out on the table face down in 10 category piles. Select a category and take as many cards from this category as there are players - making sure you include the one 'Pretender' card. Shuffle the cards and deal one card to each player. All players except one will now have a list of 10 things that relate to the category. The remaining player will have the Pretender card - they are playing blind and must bluff their way through the round.

MINI CHARADES

The first player to shout out a number or letter chooses the item on the list that players will be acting out this round. Starting with this player and moving clockwise, all players must make one tiny charade relating to this item. Be too obvious with your mini charade and the Pretender will be on to it and will fit right in - too subtle and you risk putting yourself under suspicion. Meanwhile, the Pretender must either try and guess the item before their turn so they have some idea what to act out, or act out an action vague enough that it could fit many things within the category.

ACCUSATIONS

After one round of mini charades, accusations are thrown around in an effort to catch The Pretender. Players can openly discuss their suspicions on who the Pretender is (without mentioning what the item on the card was). When the majority have made up their minds, players agree to vote. On the count of three, all players point to who they think the Pretender is. The player (or players) with the most votes must reveal their identity. If the Pretender has escaped, then they automatically win! If the Pretender has been caught, then the rest of the players win! YES, the Pretender, with one guess, manages to correctly identify the item on the card.

SCORING

Scoring is completely optional - if you want to keep score, decide in advance how many rounds you'll play (we recommend 5 for a mini game, 10 for a standard game and 15 for an epic game) and nominate someone to keep score. Then each round award one point to the Pretender if they win, and one point to every other player if the Pretender loses. At the end of the game the player with the most points wins. In the case of a tie, it's individual time - another player should choose a category and an item on the list and make a series of mini charades, relating to the item until one of the tied players shouts out the item and steals the victory!

do My House Was Not a Home Fred Voss,2022-08-01 In Frederic Voss's wonderful memoir My House Was Not a Home the author describes life on the farm with an abusive grandmother. His priority was finding other places to be than at home, a place never referred to as such in the book. Voss's book is however not about abuse but rather the friends that helped him avoid it. There were many characters good and not so good. In chapter 4 we meet Reg Keetering, the king of the tall tale spinners as he conjures The Man Who Invented Dinosaurs. In chapter 5 Darrell pronounced Duryl Campbell regales the boys in the barbershop with the origins of the Greatest Camel and Goat Herd Dog Y all Ever Saw. Readers meet the author's best friend Jimmy Tehama County's answer to Will Rogers. They'll begin to hate the school bully Stanley Bater who picks on only kids smaller than him. Once referred to as Master Bater, he couldn't figure out why they were all laughing. Among the author's many friends were abandoned dogs that came to the house from the highway. They were taken in and fed and loved. Many were reclaimed by the highway or wandered off or killed in mysterious ways. There is room for their stories too. The Games of the Decade The Cheat Mistress,2012-08-08 Cheats Unlimited are the specialists when it comes to video game cheats, walkthrough guides, reviews, and fetures.
