

EARLY INTERVENTION

the PATH to EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION

Early intervention is NECESSARY.

Early intervention helps young children with speech, language, and hearing disorders. It can prevent or reduce problems with communication, reading, learning, and social skills.

Early intervention is FAMILY CENTERED.

Early intervention focuses on your child's developmental needs and on your family's priorities. It helps ready your child for school.

Early intervention is TEAM BASED.

Speech-language pathologists and audiologists are communication professionals. They work as a team with you and other professionals. This team helps build communication skills at home, at school, and in the community.

Early intervention is IMPORTANT.

The path to effective communication may be different for each child. The most important step is to start early.

Handbook of Response to Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention
