about some of the most prominent issues America confronted as it moved into the first decades of the twentieth century Shaheen not only considers the work of each of these seven writers individually but he also reveals the interconnectedness of their ideas He shows that Henry James used the concept of androgyny to make sense of the discord between the North and the South in the years immediately following the Civil War while Norris and Gilman used it to formulate a new model of citizenship in the wake of America's industrial ascendancy The author next explores the uses Ransom and Lumpkin made of androgyny in assessing the threat of radicalism once the Great Depression had weakened the country's faith in both capitalism and religious fundamentalism Finally he looks at how androgyny was instrumental in the discussions of racial uplift and urban migration generated by Du Bois and Bonner Thoroughly documented this engrossing volume will be a valuable resource in the fields of American literary criticism feminism and gender theory queer theory and politics and nationalism development of a tradition over the centuries from the oral stage down to the modern and exemplifies the methods of composition and transmission the kinds of ballad story and the types of ballad text found in the various stages of a ballad tradition It illustrates the variety of subject matter and indicates lines of relationship with other genres of Folklore Studies A substantial section containing what are widely acknowledged as the best of all British ballads the oral ballads of Anna Brown demonstrates clearly that the ballads are not merely simple or crude poems in their oral form they are narrative songs of some complexity and sophistication This anthology is complementary to Dr Buchan's The Ballad and the Folk Godey's Lady's Book, 1843 Includes music Tales of woman's trials Anna Maria Hall, 1847 Arthurian Literature XXXIX

Megan G. Leitch, K. S. Whetter, 2024-06-04 Delivers fascinating material across genres periods and theoretical issues TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT This volume is a special issue dedicated to Professor Elizabeth Archibald who has had such an impact on and made so many significant contributions to the field of Arthurian Studies It maintains its tradition of diverse approaches to the Arthurian tradition albeit on this occasion with a particular focus on Malory appropriately reflecting one of Professor Archibald's main interests It starts with the essay awarded this year's D S Brewer Prize for a contribution by an early career scholar which considers the little known debt owed by early modern sailors to Arthurian knighthood and pageantry The essays that follow begin with a wide ranging account of manuscript decorations and annotations in Geoffrey of Monmouth's Historia before turning to the Evil Custom trope in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Further contributions explore the formalities of requests and conditions in Malory's Tale of Gareth emotional excess and magical transformation in several scenes across the Morte Darthur tensions between public and private and self and identity in Malory's Sankgreal and friction between the external and imposed law and internal and subjective but honourable code of chivalry especially apparent in Malory's final Tales The last article examines the ways in which Mordred's origins in modern Arthurian fiction build on Malory's false or forgotten promise to relate Mordred's upbringing The volume closes with a short tribute to Elizabeth Archibald highlighting her leadership in the field and her encouragement of scholarly collaboration and community
