Zadokite Propaganda in the Late Second Temple Period Heerak Christian Kim, 2014-04-23 Zadokite Propaganda in the Late Second Temple Period is a monumental epoch breaking work of scholarship in ancient history and Jewish studies This book examines centuries of scholarship on ancient Jewish group identity and official Jewish religion in the most tumultuous period of Jewish history namely the beginnings of the Maccabean era Popularly known as the time period that gave the Jewish world the most famous Jewish celebration period Hanukkah the Maccabean Revolt was far more than a rebellion against Syrian domination The period represented an important turning point in Jewish history as village priests without any significant heritage or repute successfully overthrew and expelled Zadokite priests from the Jerusalem Temple and the city of Jerusalem itself The Zadokites had been the legitimate and dominant priests of the Jerusalem Temple since the days of King Solomon who built the First Jerusalem Temple The physical and political displacement of Zadokite priests from their places of power authority and wealth produced historically significant literate communities such as the Qumran community and an abundance of literature such as commentaries creative poetry and apocalyptic works These writings all lamented the Zadokite displacement and prophesied a New Age when all would be restored to the way it should be Thus Zadokites engaged in propaganda warfare of epic proportions with all their erudition and political savvy creating a model for effective propaganda warfare The Zadokite propaganda was so effective that it set the tone for the language and theme of the New Testament

Worship as Community Drama Pierre Hegy, 2019-03-22 Church weddings funerals and most Sunday services reflect the values and dramas of their communities even when the ministers are the main or sole actors This point is illustrated by examples ranging from American television masses to the Zairean three hour services in the Congo Of greatest interest to readers might be the Sunday services at ordinary parishes which also range from friendly but uninspiring to innovative and inviting There are also two exceptionally vital churches analyzed here an evangelical church in the Pentecostal tradition and a social justice parish in the tradition of Martin Luther King Jr Today one can hardly buy an item in a store or on the Internet without being asked for an evaluation yet church services are seldom evaluated There can be no improvement without evaluation This book proposes a method of evaluation in eight steps that must be rigorously scientific and at the same time offer a vision for spiritual growth The prophet Elijah found God in earthquakes and fire but most people find mystery through art music rhythm chanting expressive readings evocative rituals and enlightened homilies Today people expect mystagogy rather than routine performances Mystagogy can be learned and improved through evaluation to which this book desires to make a major contribution

Standing Together in the Community of God Paul Janowiak, 2011 We are here on earth not to guard a museum but to cultivate a garden flourishing with life and promised to a glorious future John

XXIII exhorted the Church at the dawn of the Second Vatican Council In an age when some skeptics suggest that the reformed liturgy has lost the wonder and spiritual depth of previous ages Standing Together in the Community of God affirms that we need not look back the Sacred Mysteries are already in our midst Their wellspring and summit is the heart of God shared in the Trinity's own communion announced now as pure Gift Praising God for God's saving acts in Jesus as Vatican II reminded us we encounter Christ's sacramental presence in four modes in the person of the priest who gathers the community into communion in the elements and actions of the sacraments in the word proclaimed and preached and in the assembly praying and singing SC 7 In rhythm and harmony these modes invite us to encounter the multivalent depth of the Mysteries that announce Christ in you the hope of glory Col 1 27 Together they proclaim the Risen One among us the totus Christus hope for a hungry world Allowing each mode its respect as a bearer of the sacred these focal words and actions in the liturgy echo a communion song that announces Christ's real presence to us and for us and with us Beginning deep within this is a spirituality and piety for the twenty first century ever ancient and ever new Contextual Theology Sigurd Bergmann, Mika Vähäkangas, 2020-11-01 This book advances that history by exploring stories images and discourses across a worldwide range of geographical cultural and confessional contexts Its twelve authors not only enrich our understanding of the significance of the contextual method but also produce a new range of original ways of doing theology in contemporary situations The authors discuss some prioritised thematic perspectives with an emphasis on liberating paths and expand the ongoing discussion on the methodology of theology into new areas Themes such as interreligious plurality global capitalism ecumenical liberation theology eco anxiety and the anthropocene postcolonialism gender neo pentecostalism world theology and reconciliation are examined in situated depth Additionally voices from Indigenous lands Latin America Asia Africa Australia and Europe and North America enter into a dialogue on what it means to contextualise theology in an increasingly globalised and ever changing world Such a comprehensive discussion of new ways of thinking about and doing contextual theology will be of great use to scholars in Theology Religious Studies Cultural Studies Political Science Gender Studies Environmental Humanities and Global Studies Children's Liturgy of the Word 2021-2022 Diane Lampitt, Debra Mahr, 2021-02-03 Asian Canada Is Burning, 2025-02-20 Asian Canada is Burning is an invitation to trouble the mobilization of anti Asian hate in the aftermath of COVID 19 pandemic Bringing together activists organizers academic and artists this book explores the historical and contemporary conditions that make theorizing Asian Canadian feasible Grounded in a transnational queer and feminist lens this book also aims to envision possible futures and solidarities Ultimately this collection is concerned with moments and places of tensions confrontations relations and solidarity We offer stories of insurgent encounters as people who identify as Asian navigate and implicate settler colonial nation state to make new dreams histories and intimacies Sufi Women, Embodiment, and the 'Self' Jamila Rodrigues, 2022-12-30 This book is an ethnographic case study of Sufi ritual practice and embodied experience amongst female members of the Naqshbandi
