Mitrano, Prism Collective, Mary Rose McCarthy, Jeanne Brinkman Grinnan, 2000-04-01 Helping Couples Cope with Women's Cancers Karen Kayser, Jennifer L. Scott, 2008-02-28 Kayser and Scott have written an excellent manual for mental health practitioners who care for women with cancer To provide the best treatment for women and couples living with cancer it is imperative for the therapist to have a thorough understanding of medical treatments as well as normal responses to the experience Readers of this well written thoughtful and practical book will have both Hester Hill Schnipper LICSW BCD OSW C Chief Oncology Social Work BIDMC Author After Breast Cancer A Commonsense Guide to Life After Treatment Close relationships can be vital to a woman s recovery from breast or gynecological cancer and the myriad stressors that accompany diagnosis and treatment Helping Couples Cope with Women s Cancer shows readers not only how to enlist the patient s closest support person in coping with the disease but also to help that partner with the stressors such as feelings of inadequacy and loss that so often come with the role The authors established experts on their subject recognize the challenges couples face the central role of communication in coping and the individuality of each patient and couple In addition to proven intervention techniques and helpful assessment tools the book features case illustrations What to do if sections sociocultural considerations and suggestions for when the patient s caregiver is not her partner Key areas of coverage include Assessment quality of life impact of illness family resources Balancing work family self care and the demands of illness Cognitive coping relaxation stress reduction Body image sexuality and intimacy Helping children cope developmental guidelines Transitions goal setting life after cancer facing recurrence or terminal illness The skills and insights contained in Helping Couples Cope with Women s Cancers will benefit a range of health and mental health practitioners including counselors social workers clinical psychologists psychiatrists and nurses Graduate students planning a career in health psychology or couples therapy should also find it a valuable resource New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt, Diann L. Neu, 2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers theologians activists leaders artists and liturgists who are shaping the future Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women s full humanity Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges Climbing the Mountain Paul Stoller, Mitchel Stoller, 2015-11-28 You have cancer Three words that will change your life forever The diagnosis is often followed by surgery chemotherapy radiation therapy and many other stress inducing treatments Your future will seem like an insurmountable mountain John a 50 year old corporate lawyer found himself facing this exact situation when he was diagnosed with a low grade follicular lymphoma But John was determined to win his fight Doing research on how to cope with cancer he found a way to cope with it and is now in long term remission Using his story the authors provide a guide to climbing that mountain They show how using preparation research practice exercise and activity and a variety of social supports to live well within the parameters that cancer imposes can help you deal with the disease They consider how to cope with the stresses and strains of diagnosis first treatment short term remission second treatment long term remission and palliative care In particular the authors stress the important relationship between exercise activity and well being

Women's Rites Diann L. Neu, 2003 Neu presents an assortment of new feminist liturgies that celebrate and pay tribute to women's physical spiritual and emotional rites of passage Liturgies include Honoring Women's Blood Mysteries Making Reproductive Choices Creating Community Times of Mourning Going on from Here Ms. Magazine Gloria Steinem, Robin Morgan, Joanne Edgar, Patricia Theresa Carbine, Nina Finkelstein, Letty Cottin Pogrebin, 2000-04 Myth and Ritual in Women's Detective Fiction Christine A. Jackson, 2015-10-02 The relationship between traditional myths fairytales and current fiction novels featuring women as crime solvers is examined in this critical study Using theories from Joseph Campbell C G Jung and others the author asserts that plots and imagery in these novels conform to quest narratives outlined in classical myths and traditional fairytales Narcissus Medusa Orpheus and Orestes are a few of the figures emerging in today's mystery fiction Among the mystery authors discussed are Patricia Cornwell Amanda Cross Sue Grafton P D James Sara Paretsky and Julie Smith After establishing the anatomy of a mystery the text discusses many myths rituals and rites associated with mysteries including myths of identity religion and rites of initiation The Five Ways We Grieve Susan A. Berger, 2011-03-08 In this new approach to understanding the impact of grief Susan A Berger goes beyond the commonly held theories of stages of grief with a new typology for self awareness and personal growth She offers practical advice for healing from a major loss in this presentation of five basic ways or types of grieving These five types describe how different people respond to a major loss The types are Nomads who have not yet resolved their grief and don't often understand how their loss has affected their lives Memorialists who are committed to preserving the memory of their loved ones by creating concrete memorials and rituals to honor them Normalizers who are committed to re-creating a sense of family and community Activists who focus on helping other people who are dealing with the same disease or issues that caused their loved one's death Seekers who adopt religious philosophical or spiritual beliefs to create meaning in their lives Drawing on research results and anecdotes from working with the bereaved over the past ten years Berger examines how a person's worldview is affected after a major loss According to her findings people experience significant changes in their sense of mortality their values and priorities their perception of and orientation toward time and the manner in which they fit in society The five types of grieving she finds reflect the choices people make in their efforts to adapt to dramatic life changes By identifying with one of the types readers who have suffered a recent loss or whose lives have been shaped by an early loss find ways of understanding the impact of the loss and of living more fully Return blessings Diann L. Neu, 2002 Diann L. Neu's earliest childhood memories are intertwined with the blessings of the Earth She grew up interacting passionately with nature and first came to know God through the rhythms of the seasons She writes Nature taught me about the Divine and prayer The book probes the interrelatedness of ecology and feminism Neu vividly describes how ecofeminism values women and nature and seeks to resist their associated exploitation and domination Using the framework of the four seasons she presents sixteen liturgies designed to celebrate the sacred power that originates and emanates from the Earth Neu prompts readers to reflect on issues of ecojustice and invites participants to pray and work for the healing of the Earth and freeing all creation from the devastation of racism colonialism classism and gender privilege Handbook of Girls' and Women's Psychological Health Carol D. Goodheart, 2006 The Handbook of Girls and Women's Psychological Health presents a contemporary view of psychological health for girls and women that integrates psychology physiology society and culture A range of 50 chapters integrates current research scholarship and practice on the risks and protective factors that influence women's health and well being across the life span Within and biopsychosocial framework the Handbook explores mind and body risks and resilience research and interventions cultural diversity and public policy This Handbook underscores the importance of gender in the lives of girls and women developmentally across significant phases of the life span Considering the importance of cultural context this book illustrates how gender socialization in female development and behavior affects self evaluation identity processes and the social roles that girls and women adopt Its chapters illustrate how externally induced risks such as poverty discrimination and violence present challenges to healthy development Significantly the chapters also draw attention to long overlooked and compelling strengths and capacities that provide a firm basis for growth and health BOOK JACKET Psychological Health of Women of Color Lillian Comas-Díaz, Beverly Greene, 2013-05-23 This work serves to celebrate the strengths of women of color identify unique opportunities and examine the specific challenges and issues of this group Psychological Health of Women of Color Intersections Challenges and Opportunities is an anthology that examines core issues of women of color's emotional health and well being Organized by subject the work comprises contributions from noted experts on the psychological health of women of color The book analyzes the life stages of women of color childhood adolescence adulthood and old age It serves to address the challenges women of color face in the forms of physical health violence substance abuse psychopharmacology and legal forensic issues as well as to highlight diverse
