 Those who built and used the Erie Canal were a bizarre society proud pioneers on the waterway known in song and story as the Horse Ocean the Roaring Giddap or the Raging Erie Their considerable influence on American life and literature is the basis of this book Canallers were colorful characters from the hoggee on the towpath to the shipshape macaroni with stovepipe hat and badge of service taking command of a packet with the pride of an admiral even though he was restricted by law to a speed of four miles per hour Games and diversions were rough and tumble fighting being as natural as breathing to the canallers Stories about heroes like Sam Patch and Paddy Ryan or the big fish that could haul a canal boat or the big pumpkin that drained the canal these were logical products of this frontier atmosphere So were the songs carefree bawdy or sad inspired by the canal and sung throughout the land Photographs and drawings music and words to folk songs maps notes and index are included in this first paperback edition Military Review ,1990 United States Army in World War II.
