The Holocaust and Genocides in Europe Benjamin Lieberman, 2013-04-11 Focusing on the major cases of genocide in twentieth century Europe including the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and genocide in the former Yugoslavia as well as mass killing in the Soviet Union this book outlines the internal and external roots of genocide Internal causes lie in the rise of radical nationalism and the breakdown of old empires while external causes lie in the experience of mass violence in European colonial empires Such roots did not make any case of genocide inevitable but did create models for mass destruction The book enables students to assess the interplay between general causes of violence and the specific crises that accelerated moves towards radical genocidal policies Chapters on the major cases of twentieth century European genocide will each describe and analyse several key themes acts of genocide perpetrators victims and bystanders and genocide in particular regions Using the voices of the human actors in genocide often ignored or forgotten provides arresting new insights The conclusion frames European genocide in a global perspective giving students an entry point to discussion of genocide in other continents and historical periods

Surviving the Peace Peter Lippman, 2019-11-15 Surviving the Peace is a monumental feat of ground level reporting describing two decades of postwar life in Bosnia specifically among those fighting for refugee rights of return Unique in its breadth and profoundly humanitarian in its focus Surviving the Peace situates digestible explanations of the region's bewilderingly complex recent history among interviews conversations and tableaux from the lives of everyday Bosnians attempting to make sense of what passes for normal in a postwar society Essential reading for students of the former Yugoslavia and anyone interested in postwar or post genocide studies Surviving the Peace is an instant classic of long form reporting an impossible accomplishment without a lifetime of dedication to a place and people

Terrible Fate

Benjamin Lieberman, 2013-12-16 In the modern Greek city of Thessaloniki the ruins of a vast Jewish cemetery lie buried under the city's university Nearby is the site of the childhood home of one of the founders of the modern Turkish state These are tantalizing reminders of what was once the bustling cosmopolitan city of Salonica home not just to Greeks but to thousands of Sephardic Jews Turks Bulgarians and Armenians living and working peacefully alongside one another Thessaloniki is just one example among many of what used to be Over the past two centuries ethnic cleansing has remade the map of Central and Eastern Europe and the Middle East transforming vast empires that embraced many ethnic groups into nearly homogenous nations Towns and cities from Germany to Turkey still show traces of the vanished and nearly forgotten ethnic and religious communities that once called these places home In Terrible Fate Benjamin Lieberman describes the violent transformations that occurred in Salonica and hundreds of other towns and cities as the Ottoman Russian Austro

Hungarian and German empires collapsed to be reborn as the modern nation states we know today His book is the first comprehensive history of this process that has involved the murder and forced migration of tens of millions of people Drawing upon eyewitness accounts contemporary journalism and diplomatic records Lieberman s story sweeps across the continent taking the reader from ethnic cleansing s earliest beginnings in Bulgaria Greece and Russia in the nineteenth century through the rise of nationalism both world wars the Armenian genocide the Holocaust and the rise and fall of the Soviet empire up to the breakup of Yugoslavia in the 1990s Along the way he examines the decisive roles of political leaders not only monarchs and dictators but also those who were democratically elected as well as ordinary people who often required very little encouragement to rob and brutalize their neighbors or who were simply caught up in the tide of history

The Thing I'm Most Afraid Of Kristin Levine,2021-06-15 A new middle grade tale from critically acclaimed award winning author Kristin Levine about facing your fears set in Vienna during the Bosnian genocide Most twelve year olds would be excited to fly to Austria to see their dad for the summer but then Becca is not most twelve year olds Suffering from severe anxiety she fears that the metal detectors at the airport will give her cancer and the long international flight will leave her with blood clots Luckily she s packed her Doomsday Journal the one thing that always seems to help By writing down her fears and what to do if the worst happens Becca can get by without many panic attacks Routines and plans help Becca cope but living in a new country is full of the unexpected including Becca s companions for the summer Like Felix the short and bookish son of Becca s dad s new girlfriend Or Sara the nineteen year old Bosnian refugee tasked with watching the two of them for the summer As Becca explores Vienna and becomes close to her new friends she soon learns she is not alone in her fears What matters most is what you do when faced with them
