Rivers Voice The An Anthology Of Poetry:

The River's Voice Angela King, Susan Clifford, 2000 This volume comprises 190 poems by 133 poets old favourites such as Tennyson's The Song of the Brook and Wordsworth's Upon Westminster Bridge are joined by 20th century poetry from both sides of the Atlantic with writers including A R Ammon Wendell Berry Carol Ann Duffy U A Fanthorpe Seamus Heaney Ted Hughes Andrew Motion Sylvia Plath and William Carlos Williams Poets muse on the particularity of rivers use the river as a metaphor for life's journey from spring to the sea of unknowing and explore the magical qualities of water its transformations and patterns Yet in Britain our rivers are still retreating from a post war onslaught the lowering of water tables draining of water meadows chopping down of trees and destroying wildlife habitats This book reasserts the timeless importance of rivers to our environment to the poetic imagination and indeed to life itself

The American Voice Anthology of Poetry

Frederick Smock, 2021-10-21 The American Voice looks to find the vital edge of modern American writing The journal whose contributors come from the U S Canada and Latin America often publishes work by writers denied access to mainstream journals Writings from its pages have been regularly reprinted in prize annuals such as The Pushcart Prize Best American Poetry and Best American Essays This fifteenth anniversary anthology collects eighty poems from some of the most original and daring writers of our time The anthology's contributors range from the world famous Jorge Luis Borges Marge Piercy May Swenson to the newly emerging Marie Sheppard Williams Suzanne Gardinier Robyn Selman and from the nationally read Wendell Berry Reynolds Price Barbara Kingsolver to the distinctly regional George Ella Lyon Jane Gentry James Still This volume brings together some of the best selections from an award winning journal making clear why Small Press dubbed The American Voice one of the most impressive journals in the country

Late modernist poetics Anthony Mellors, 2024-06-04 This book explores the uncanny afterlife of modernist ideals in the second half of the twentieth century Rejecting the familiar notion that modernism dissolved during the 1930s it argues that the fusion of rationalism and mysticism which characterises modernist poetics was sustained long after its politics had been discredited by the events of World War Two The book's central concern is why the aesthetic mysticism that Walter Benjamin called the faith of those who made common cause with Fascism continued to be a guiding principle for literary elites and countercultural movements alike New light is shed on the relationship between occultism and the Pound tradition especially in terms of Pound's influence on post 1945 Anglo American poetry and a critical theory of late modernism is offered which shows how belated notions of cultural redemption have survived in contemporary poetry This wide ranging contextual study focuses on the poetry of Ezra Pound Charles Olson Paul Celan and J H Prynne and explores the development of modernist culture through its theories of phenomenology psychoanalysis science ethnography and ancient history

Telling Environmental Histories

Katie Holmes, Heather Goodall, 2017-12-12 This collection explores the intersections of oral history and environmental history Oral history offers environmental historians the opportunity to understand the ways people's perceptions experiences and beliefs about environments change over time In turn the insights of environmental history challenge oral historians to think more critically about the ways an active more than human world shapes experiences and people The integration of these approaches enables us to more fully and critically understand the ways cultural and individual memory and experience shapes human interactions with the more than human world just as it enables us to identify the ways human memory identity and experience is moulded by the landscapes and environments in which people live and labour It includes contributions from Australia India the UK Canada and the USA Learning the Language of the Soul Andrew D. Mayes,2016 How can we describe to others what is happening to us on our spiritual journey How can we depict the spiritual road that we are taking experiences of prayer transitions that we travel through impediments that we face and externalize into words the interior experiences In this spiritual lexicon Andrew Mayes explores creative and inspirational metaphors to equip anyone wanting to communicate effectively about their faith or life of prayer Learning the Language of the Soul is a handbook that will prove indispensable to spiritual directors evangelists and all sharing in the witness of the church today It will loosen our tongues as we discover images from both the classic Christian tradition and contemporary culture that help us express and develop a spiritual literacy by which we share with others the joys and struggles of the inner life Facilitating Watershed

Management Robert L. France,2005-03-31 Facilitating Watershed Management brings together myriad distinctive voices to create an experiential learning process drawn from the most important innovators in the field Presenting an introduction to the diversity of tools sociological pedagogical phenomenological needed to implement watershed management in the real world trenches the book helps move students and practitioners from being knowledgeable stewards of watersheds to becoming wise managers of watersheds A Study Guide for Pak Tu-jin's "August River" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016

Writing Jos Smith,2017-05-04 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com In the last decade there has been a proliferation of landscape writing in Britain and Ireland often referred to as The New Nature Writing Rooted in the work of an older generation of environment focused authors and activists this new form is both stylistically innovative and mindful of ecology and conservation practice The New Nature Writing Rethinking the Literature of Place connects these two generations to show that the contemporary energy around the cultures of landscape and place is the outcome of a long standing relationship between environmentalism and the arts Drawing on original interviews with authors archival research and scholarly work in the fields of literary geographies ecocriticism and archipelagic criticism the book covers the work of such writers as Robert Macfarlane Richard Mabey Tim Robinson and Alice Oswald Examining the ways in which these authors have engaged with a wide range of different environments from the edgelands to island spaces Jos Smith reveals how they recreate a resourceful and dynamic sense of localism in rebellion against the homogenising growth of clone town Britain Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel,1974 Is poetry a science? Order in chaos Angela Mary Lisle,2011-08-11 A collection of poems by Angela Mary Lisle Is Poetry a Science also examines the author s own approach to writing Moon on the Tides: The AQA GCSE Poetry Anthology - a Guide for Students David Wheeler,2011-04-02 A detailed and comprehensive guide to all sixty poems in the AQA Poetry Anthology Each poem is carefully explained in its context and then minutely analysed Unfamiliar words are explained there is a comprehensive glossary of poetic terms advice on how to answer examination questions and sixteen model answers based on specimen questions supplied by AQA American Poets and Poetry Jeffrey Gray,Mary McAleer Balkun,James McCorkle,2015-03-10 The ethnically diverse scope broad chronological coverage and mix of biographical critical historical political and cultural entries make this the most useful and exciting poetry reference of its kind for students today American poetry springs up out of all walks of life its poems are maternal as well as paternal stuff d with the stuff that is coarse and stuff d with the stuff that is fine as Walt Whitman wrote adding Of every hue and caste am I of every rank and religion Written for high school and undergraduate students this two volume encyclopedia covers U S poetry from the Colonial era to the present offering full treatments of hundreds of key poets of the American canon What sets this reference apart is that it also discusses events movements schools and poetic approaches placing poets in their social historical political cultural and critical contexts and showing how their works mirror the eras in which they were written Readers will learn about surrealism ekphrastic poetry pastoral elegy the Black Mountain poets and language poetry There are long and rich entries on modernism and postmodernism as well as entries related to the formal and technical dimensions of American poetry Particular attention is paid to women poets and poets from various ethnic groups Poets such as Amiri Baraka Nathaniel Mackey Natasha Trethewey and Tracy Smith are featured The encyclopedia also contains entries on a wide selection of Latino and Native American poets and substantial coverage of the avant garde and experimental movements and provides sidebars that illuminate key points Go Ask the River Evelyn Eaton,2012 Set against the warring factions of ninth century China this beautiful story traces the rise of the great female poet Hung Tu the daughter of a government official from Flower in the Mist to Official Hostess at the court of the governors of the Silk City and her love affair with the poet Yuan Chen Original Republic of Apples, Democracy of Oranges Frank Stewart,Tony Barnstone,Ming Di,2019-07-31 Republic of Apples Democracy of Oranges presents nearly 100 poets and translators from China and the U S the two countries most responsible for global carbon dioxide emissions and the primary contributors to extreme climate change These poetic voices express the altered relationship that now exists between the human and non human worlds a situation in which we witness everyday the ways environmental destruction is harming our emotions and imaginations What can poetry say about our place in the natural world today ecologically minded poets ask How do we express this new reality in art or sing about it in poetry And as poet Forrest Gander wonders how might syntax line break or the shape of the poem on the page express an ecological ethics Eco poetry freely searches for possible answers Sichuan poet Sun Wenbo writes I feel so liberated I start writing about the republic of apples and democracy of oranges When I see apples have not become tanks oranges not bombs I know I ve not become a slave of words after all The Chinese poets are from throughout the PRC and Taiwan both minority and majority writers from big cities and rural provinces such as Liangshan Yi Autonomous Prefecture and Xinjiang Uyghur Tibet and Inner Mongolia Autonomous Regions The American poets are both emerging and established from towns and cities across the U S Included are images by celebrated photographer Linda Butler documenting the Three Gorges Dam on the Yangtze River and the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina on the Mississippi River Basin

Over the River and Through the Wood Karen L. Kilcup, Angela Sorby, 2014 Offers readers a view of the quality and diversity of nineteenth century American children s poetry Complemented by period illustrations this collection includes work by poets from all geographical regions as well as rarely seen poems by immigrant and ethnic writers and by children themselves Losing the Ring in the River Marjorie Saiser, 2013-03-30 Spare and incisive the poems in Losing the Ring in the River deal with three strong women Clara Emma and Liz women who are tough often sassy and have dreams that aren t quelled by the realities they face Saiser deftly explores the undercurrents connecting three generations and is at her most powerful when she explores how lives are restricted and sometimes painfully damaged by what people cannot or will not share with one another Saiser s poetry is as harsh as it is beautiful she avoids resolutions and easy endings focusing instead on the small hard won victories that each woman experiences in her life and in her love of those around her Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation s Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest s continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature

Spoon River America Jason Stacy, 2021-05-11 From Main Street to Stranger Things how poetry changed our idea of small town life A literary and cultural milestone Spoon River Anthology captured an idea of the rural Midwest that became a bedrock myth of life in small town America Jason Stacy places the book within the atmosphere of its time and follows its progress as the poetry took root and thrived Published by Edgar Lee Masters in 1915 Spoon River Anthology won praise from modernists while becoming an ongoing touchstone for American popular culture Stacy charts the ways readers embraced debated and reshaped Masters s work in literary controversies and culture war skirmishes in films and other media that over time saw the small town as idyllic then conflicted then surreal and as the source of three archetypes populist elite and exile that endure across the landscape of American culture in the twenty first century A wide ranging reconsideration of a literary landmark Spoon River America tells the story of how a Midwesterner s poetry helped change a nation s conception of itself

A Study Guide for Edgar Lee Masters's "Lucinda Matlock" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016 A Study Guide for Edgar Lee Masters s Lucinda Matlock excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs

Portals into Deep Imagination Michael Wilson,2025-04-29 An anthology of weekly contemplations and practices for spirituality through the lens of psychology inspired by the culture and mythology of the Celts in Britain and Ireland and their connection with nature This functional and thought provoking book illustrates how Celtic tales of the Otherworld offer exciting openings for understanding including dreams non ordinary states of consciousness content of the deep imagination and a bigger Mystery of life Celtic myths and legends are alive with metaphor and symbolism which is often thought to be the language of the deep imagination and is so vital to a soulful path The dreamlike quality of myth and legend where the boundary between fact and poetic imagination is misty allows us to engage with them symbolically to promote insights for daily living Bringing psychology alongside the Celts in this way allows for a conversation on spirituality where psychology sometimes leads and at other times where Celtic voices illustrate poignant truths for a path travelled in depth Following the Celtic year the book consists of eight parts with six or seven weeks per part throughout the year providing a balance of reflection on core themes and practices beginning with a festival Each week offers tales and folklore from Celtic mythology followed by a suggested practice of meditation and contemplation allowing readers to reflect on their corresponding themes in their own lives Ultimately Portals into Deep Imagination is a companion for contemporary spirituality in an age of transition a resource for path walkers to live more from soul via the ancients nature connection and life s Mystery
