Rivieres Du Quebec:

Annuaire du Québec Quebec Bureau of Statistics, 1925 Les recueils de jurisprudence du Québec, publiés par le Barreau de Québec Québec (Province). Superior Court, 1893 Le province de Quebec André Beaulieu, W.F.E. Morley, Benôit Bernier, Agathe Garon, 1971-12-15 There is no doubt that local and regional history considered by many as a kind of minor historical study has a pressing need for a systematic inventory of its resources This collection shows the durability the vividness and the astonishing productivity of a sector of history which is the stronghold of the history lover rather than the professional historian The nature and content of each book determines its selection For each book included the compilers have weighed its contribution to local history and regional history rather than the style in which it is written narrative memoir descriptive study or novel It is this criterion of selection that has permitted the retention of several general histories of a varied nature Bouchette Charlevoix Nicholas Denys La Potherie Lescarbot Hanotau Sulte etc where local and regional life takes on a major importance for reasons of order in history method or quite simply because local life is the principal object of the study itself The editors have also retained certain works those of George W Brown Arthur Buies George M Grant Blodwen Davies etc because they are primarily descriptive and contain numerous elements in which local history blends with the manners and customs of the inhabitants of certain regions This bibliography is designed primarily for historiographers who have until now paid little attention to local regional or parochial history It will also be invaluable for librarians who suffer from the numerous difficulties involved in the classification of such works Since 1950 all works published in Canada are by virtue of the book deposit law provided to the National Library of Canada and recorded in Canadiana Library of

Court, 1905 Nationalism and the Politics of Culture in Quebec Richard Handler, 1988 Richard Handler s pathbreaking study of nationalistic politics in Quebec is a striking and successful example of the new experimental type of ethnography interdisciplinary in nature and intensively concerned with rhetoric and not only of anthropologists but also of scholars in a wide range of fields and it is likely to stir sharp controversy Bringing together methodologies of history sociology political science and philosophy as well as anthropology Handler centers on the period 1976 1984 during which the independantiste Parti Qu b ois was in control of the provincial government and nationalistic sentiment was especially strong Handler draws on historical and archival research and on interviews with Quebec and Canadian government officials as he addresses the central question Given the similarities between the epistemologies of both anthropology and nationalist ideology how can one write an ethnography of nationalism that does not simply reproduce and thereby endorse nationalistic beliefs Handler analyzes various responses to the nationalist vision of a threatened existence He examines cultural tourism ideology of the Quebec government legislations concerning historical preservation language legislation and policies towards immigrants and cultural minorities He concludes with a thoughtful meditation on the futility of nationalisms
