Rivonias Children Three Families And The Price Of Freedom In South Africa:

Everyday Communists in South Africa's Liberation Struggle Alan Kirkaldy, 2021-11-10 This book explores the role of social movements in the Southern African liberation struggle through the lens of two everyday communists Focusing on the Communist Party of South Africa CPSA the author explores the lives of Ivan and Lesley Schermbrucker whose contribution to the party was more clandestine than that of leaders such as Bram Fischer and Joe Slovo They represent how ordinary people could play significant roles based on stances more rooted in common decency and morality than in Marxist theory The book also sheds light on the interplay between transnational and national tendencies during the liberation movement particularly between the 1940s and the 1960s The Schermbruckers changed their views in response to the shifting national and international political landscape the rise of Stalinism and the flight of South African activists into exile from the 1960s Both fluent in African languages they were able to create relationships of trust with African members of the CPSA Examining tensions and conflicts during the liberation struggle this book provides fresh insights into underground activism

Rivonia's Children Glenn Frankel, 1999 Apartheid, 1948-1994 Saul Dubow, 2014-05 This fresh interpretation of apartheid South Africa integrates histories of resistance with the analysis of power asking not only why apartheid was defeated but how it came to survive for so long

Umkhonto we Sizwe Thula Simpson, 2016-03-01 The armed struggle waged by the ANC s military wing Umkhonto we Sizwe MK was the longest sustained insurgency in South African history This book offers the first full account of the rebellion in its entirety from its early days in the 1950s to the inauguration of Nelson Mandela as South African president in 1994 Vast in scope this story traverses every corner of South Africa and extends throughout southern Africa where MK s largest campaigns and heaviest engagements occurred as well as to the solidarity networks that the rebellion mobilised around the world Drawing principally from previously unpublished writings and testimonies by the men and women who fought the armed struggle this book recreates the drama heroism and tragedy of their experiences It tells the story of leaders like Nelson Mandela Oliver Tambo Joe Slovo and Chris Hani whose reputations were forged in the crucible of the armed struggle but it is also a tale of martyrs such as Looksmart Ngudle Ashley Kriel and Phila Ndwandwe as well as of MK cadres such as Leonard Nkosi and Glory Sedibe who would ultimately turn against the ANC and collaborate with the state in hunting down their former comrades Written in a fresh immediate style Umkhonto we Sizwe is an honest account of the armed struggle and a fascinating chronicle of events that changed South African history Rivonia's Children Glenn Frankel,2011 Rivonia's children is the harrowing and inspiring account of a number of white Jewish activists who risked their lives to battle apartheid when South Africa plunged into an era of darkness in the 1960s from which it has only recently emerged The Anxieties of White Supremacy Christoph Marx,2024-11-11 Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd 1958 1966 was an authoritarian modernizer and a true representative of the Age of Extremes How did the Architect of Apartheid grow his ideology of racial segregation into a comprehensive system and a policy for the future The Anxieties of White Supremacy Hendrik Verwoerd and the Apartheid Mindset explores his intellectual development and academic career prior to entering politics In the Words of South African Struggle Heroes George Claassen,2012-09-27 We have lost a lot of freedom in the past 30 years But it's only when we don't stand up for it that we lose all Alan Paton teacher author and liberal politician 1978 If it is for the truth that I must die so let it be Joe Seremane political prisoner later Democratic Alliance chairperson In Africa things sometimes happen upside down Such as the sun first had to set on the continent before it rose and not the other way around Mathews Phosa ANC exile politician and Afrikaans poet Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools Melissa Landa,2017-11-01 Much has been written about the failure of White American public school teachers to effectively teach low income children of color to read and write Scholars have offered numerous explanations for this failure including the reluctance of teacher preparation programs to address cultural competence and the lack of cultural diversity among teacher educators In response to reported failures such as high attrition rates of novice teachers and low test scores American public schools are being subjected to increased standardization of the curriculum and high stakes testing This book provides rich illustrations of White early literacy teachers who choose to remain in low income school communities where they effectively and passionately embrace their students families and communities Blending the teachers successful practices shown in in depth interviews excavating their identities and life experiences with theoretical frameworks about teaching and learning Early Childhood Literacy Teachers in High Poverty Schools A Study of Boundary Crossing discusses the responsibility of public educators to cross geographical economic and political divisions on behalf of their students and offers strategies for teacher educators to equip future teachers for these tasks The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness,Zak Cope,2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date Human Rights Day March 21 Sahn Venter,2008-04 Describes the events surrounding the Sharpeville Massacre and the reasons why Human Rights Day is celebrated in South Africa External Mission Stephen Ellis, 2022-07-15 External Mission helped me understand better how the phenomenon of Jacob Zuma and his main legacy state capture became possible

MAX DU PREEZ After the ANC was banned by the apartheid government in 1960 many of its leaders and members were forced to leave the country During the next three decades it had to operate in exile and underground Yet the real history of this period remains shrouded in mystery Some events such as the Rhodesian campaign of 1967 1968 and the Kabwe conference of 1985 are well known but lesser known are the intense factional struggles within the organisation recurring pro democracy protests and the creation of a security apparatus that inspired widespread fear Some networks within the exiled ANC became heavily involved in corruption even colluding with elements of the apartheid security police and secret services

External Mission aims to provide a full account of the ANC's years in exile penetrating the secrecy the organisation erected around itself and testing the myths that emerged from that period It is based on an exceptionally wide range of sources including the ANC's own archives and foreign archives such as those in East Germany where the movement's security personnel were trained Incisive and revealing External Mission is key to understanding South Africa today Illuminating Childhood Ellen Handler Spitz, 2011 A brilliant and daring book on how art reveals life how it illuminates childhood beyond what the sciences of development can tell us Jerome Bruner University Professor New York University Combining the surgical precision of a psychoanalytically informed critic with the oracular eloquence of a brilliant close reader Ellen Handler Spitz reads our cultural fortunes about childhood and parenting through works of art Moving us in both senses of the term from the serene plenitude of Piero della Francesca's Madonna of Childbirth to the unsparing horror of Lessing's Fifth Child she reveals just how powerfully art puts us in touch with the pulsing energies of real life Maria Tatar John L Loeb Professor of Germanic Languages and Literatures Harvard University Illuminating Childhood is a wonderfully well written and researched interdisciplinary study of childhood in various media and mediums as well as through ethnicity race gender cultures and time T Denean Sharpley Whiting Distinguished Professor of French and Director of African American and Diaspora Studies Vanderbilt University While literature and the arts are rarely considered primary sources for knowledge about human motivation and behavior people read novels attend movies watch television and go to the theater not solely to be entertained but also to learn about one another and about themselves Illuminating Childhood formalizes this quest for psychological knowledge in the domain of the arts Starting with the premise that a gifted writer artist or filmmaker has the ability to teach us as much in one scene as a theorist can in a treatise or a therapist in a session the author shares her intimate experience of eight thematically linked works in film and literature from the second half of the twentieth century touching on issues central to parent child relations including toxic intrafamilial secrets the disjunction between love and understanding and the lasting impact of deceased parents on their children While the canon of literature about children and parent child relations includes books that identify problems propose solutions and present statistical data Illuminating

Written Under the Skin Carli Coetzee, 2019 In this book the author argues that a younger generation of South Africans is developing important and innovative ways of understanding South African pasts and that challenge the narratives that have over the last decades been informed by notions of forgiveness and reconciliation The author uses the image of history rich blood to explore these approaches to intergenerational memory Blood under the skin is a carrier of embodied and gendered histories and using this image the chapters revisit older archives as well as analyse contemporary South African cultural and literary forms The emphasis on blood challenges the privileged status skin has had as explanatory category in thinking about identity and instead emphasises intergenerational transfer and continuity The argument is that a younger generation is disputing and debating the terms through which to understand contemporary South Africa as well as for interpreting the legacies of the past that remain under the visible layer of skin The chapters each concern blood Mandela's prison cell as laboratory for producing bloodless freedom the kinship relations created and resisted in accounts of Eugene de Kock in prison Ruth First's concern with information leaks in her accounts of her time in prison the first human to human heart transplant and its relation to racialised attempts to salvage white identity the Fallist moment Abantu book festival and activist scholarship and creative art works that use blood as trope for thinking about change and continuity Carli Coetzee is Editor of the Journal of African Cultural Studies Her publications include Accented Futures Language Activism and the Ending of Apartheid Wits University Press 2013 and the edited collection Afropolitanism Reboot Routledge 2017 She co edited The Handbook of African Literature Routledge 2019 with Moradewun Adejunmobi and Negotiating the Past The Making of Memory in South Africa Oxford University Press 1998 with Sarah Nuttall Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Wits University Press

Jewish Affairs ,1999 South Africa Yearbook ,2006 South Africa Yearbook 2002/03 Delien Burger, 2002 Searchlight ,2000 Apartheid's Friends James Sanders, 2006 Very little has been written about the South African secret intelligence but revelations to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the new culture of confessions now make that possible James Sanders has gathered classified documents and interviewed ex operatives since 1997 and has pieced together an extraordinary unsavoury picture of the Intelligence Service both inside South Africa and overseas He reveals evidence of state sponsored murder not only to intimidate the ANC but also to allow hard men within the police and the armed forces to let off steam He reveals that Republican political candidates in the US were assisted in elections against anti Apartheid

Democrats He shows that South Africa supplied Argentina with weapons during the Falklands War and that Harold Wilson's surprising outbursts when he claimed that South African intelligence agents were trying to bring down his government were based on hard evidence At operational level South African Intelligence had intimate links with counterparts in the CIA British Intelligence and other agencies worldwide Apartheid's Friends not only provides an insight into a dark area of South Africa's past it is also an important contribution to the international history of secret service Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2000 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests
