Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1984 Ethical and Philosophical Aspects of Nursing Children and Young People Gosia M. Brykczynska,Joan Simons,2011-01-19 Nurses and healthcare professionals are constantly faced with ethical and philosophical dilemmas when working with children in everyday practice Ethical and Philosophical Aspects of Nursing Children and Young People is a comprehensive text on the ethics and philosophy behind paediatric nursing that reflects the contemporary issues encountered while working with children and young people The title provides a philosophical and historical analysis of the subject looking at a review of sociological and political theories concerning the nature of childhood and providing a critical analysis of contemporary notions about childhood It then goes on to look at moral theories and their application to paediatric nursing practice ethical issues when caring for children of all ages from infancy to adolescence It considers issues of disabled children confidentiality mental health issues children s rights and pain management With case studies and activities throughout this book will enable students and newly qualified nurses both to understand philosophical concepts and issues but also to articulate their own reflections and observations on these subjects Written by children s nurses for children s nurses With contributions from internationally recognised experts in the field Reflective scenarios further reading extensive referencing case studies guided questions and resources throughout Includes appendices on the RCPCH Guidelines on Withdrawal of Treatment the ICN Ethical Code the Summary of the UNCRC and the RCPCH Guidelines for the Conduct of Ethical Research British Books in Print ,1986 The Genesee Farmer ,1835 Roads, Railways and Canals Mark C. W. Sleep,John Yates,1983 The School Librarian School Library Association,1983 The School World ,1917 Asian Forms of the Nation Stein Tonnesson,Hans Antlov,2013-10-23 The general tendency among theorists in nationalism and national identity has been to assume that the modernization process in Asia and Africa is a kind of distorted reflection of a Western precedent Asian forms of the nation have rarely been seen as independent alternative models Among today s leading theoreticians there is a growing tendency to take Asia seriously and to include Asian examples in the general discussion The aim of the present collection is to build on and reinforce this tendency It does not postulate any specifically Asian form of the nation as opposed to a Western one Rather it seeks to demonstrate that in Asia as well as in Europe each nation forms a unique amalgam which can be compared fruitfully with others History culture and geography have posed various kinds of limits to what can be imagined as Benedict Anderson puts it The relationship between geographical space and national construction is explored in depth here The academy ,1876 Prospecting and Exploration for Sand and Gravel John Roy Thoenen,1932 Genesee Farmer and Gardener's Journal ,1835 British Architect and Northern Engineer ,1877 Academy and Literature ,1900 Light and Liberty Robert M. S. McDonald,2012 Although Thomas Jefferson s status as a champion of education is widely known the essays in Light and Liberty make clear that his efforts to enlighten fellow citizens reflected not only a love of learning but also a love of freedom

Using as a starting point Jefferson's conviction that knowledge is the basis of republican self government the contributors examine his educational projects not as disparate attempts to advance knowledge for its own sake but instead as a result of his unyielding almost obsessive desire to bolster Americans republican virtues and values Whether by establishing schools or through broader extra institutional efforts to disseminate knowledge Jefferson's endeavors embraced his vision for a dynamic and meritocratic America He aimed not only to provide Americans with the ability to govern themselves and participate in the government of others but also to influence Americans to remake their society in accordance with his own principles Written in clear and accessible prose Light and Liberty reveals the startling diversity of Jefferson's attempts to rid citizens of the ignorance and vice that in the view of Jefferson and many contemporaries had corroded and corrupted once great civilizations Never wavering from his faith that knowledge is power Jefferson embraced an expansive understanding of education as the foundation for a republic of free and responsible individuals who understood their rights and stood ready to defend them "The" Athenaeum ,1865 Allen's Indian mail and register of intelligence for British and foreign India ,1865 Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review ,1876 Railroad Gazette ,1878

The Sociology of Military Science Chris Paparone,2012-11-08 This groundbreaking work challenges modernist military science and explores how a more open design epistemology is becoming an attractive alternative to a military staff culture rooted in a monistic scientific paradigm The author offers fresh sociological avenues to become more institutionally reflexive to offer a variety of design frames of reference beyond those typified by modern military doctrine Modernist military knowledge has been institutionalized to the point that blinds militaries to alternative designs organizationally and in their interventions This book seeks to reconstruct strategy and operations in designing ways and develops theories of action through multifaceted contextualizations and recontextualizations of situations showing that Military Design does not have to rely on set rational analytic decision making schemes but on seeking alternative meanings in and on action The work offers an alternative philosophy of practice that embraces the unpredictability of tasks to be accomplished Written by Colonel Paparone U S Army Ret PhD with a special chapter by two active duty officers it will appeal to all in military and security studies including professionals and policymakers Travel Magazine ,1916
