operate and provides an empirical examination of their main claims and perspectives This is supplemented by a truly global overview of non violent extremist groups not only in Europe and the United States but also in Africa Asia Oceania and the Middle East The Handbook thus answers a call to decolonise knowledge that is especially prescient given both the complicity of non violent extremists with authoritarian states and the dynamic of oppression towards more progressive groups in the Global South The Handbook will appeal to those studying extremism radicalisation and terrorism It intersects several relevant disciplines including social movement studies political science criminology Islamic studies and anthropology
