Robert Breer A Study Of His Work In The Context Of The Modernist Tradition:

Robert Breer Lois Mendelson,1977 Robert Breer, a Study of His Work in the Context of the Modernist Tradition Lois Mendelson,1981 A Critical Cinema 2 Scott MacDonald,2023-04-28 This sequel to A Critical Cinema offers a new collection of interviews with independent filmmakers that is a feast for film fans and film historians Scott MacDonald reveals the sophisticated thinking of these artists regarding film politics and contemporary gender issues The interviews explore the careers of Robert Breer Trinh T Minh ha James Benning Su Friedrich and Godfrey Reggio Yoko Ono discusses her cinematic collaboration with John Lennon Michael Snow talks about his music and films Anne Robertson describes her cinematic diaries Jonas Mekas and Bruce Baillie recall the New York and California avant garde film culture The selection has a particularly strong group of women filmmakers including Yvonne Rainer Laura Mulvey and Lizzie Borden Other notable artists are Anthony McCall Andrew Noren Ross McElwee Anne Severson and Peter Watkins This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 This sequel to A Critical Cinema offers a new collection of interviews with independent filmmakers that is a feast for film fans and film historians Scott MacDonald reveals the sophisticated thinking of these artists regarding film politics and The Redemption of Things Samuel Frederick,2022-01-15 Collecting is usually understood as an activity that bestows permanence unity and meaning on otherwise scattered and ephemeral objects In The Redemption of Things Samuel Frederick emphasizes that to collect things however always entails displacing immobilizing and potentially disfiguring them too He argues that the dispersal of objects seemingly antithetical to the collector s task is essential to the logic of gathering and preservation Through analyses of collecting as a dialectical process of preservation and loss The Redemption of Things illustrates this paradox by focusing on objects that challenge notions of collectability ephemera detritus and trivialities such as moss junk paper scraps dust scent and the transitory moment In meticulous close readings of works by Gotthelf Stifter Keller Rilke Glauser and Frisch and by examining an experimental film by Oskar Fischinger Frederick reveals how the difficulties posed by these fleeting fragile and forsaken objects help to reconceptualize collecting as a poetic activity that makes the world of scattered things uniquely palpable and knowable Between the Black Box and the White Cube Andrew V. Uroskie,2014-02-27 Today the moving image is ubiquitous in global contemporary art The first book to tell the story of the postwar expanded cinema that inspired this omnipresence Between the Black Box and the White Cube travels back to the 1950s and 1960s when the rise of television caused movie theaters to lose their monopoly over the moving image leading cinema to be installed directly alongside other forms of modern art Explaining that the postwar expanded cinema was a response to both developments Andrew V Uroskie argues that rather than a formal or technological innovation the key change for artists involved a displacement of the moving image from the familiarity of the cinematic theater to original spaces and contexts He shows how newly available inexpensive film and video technology enabled artists such as Nam June Paik Robert Whitman Stan VanDerBeek Robert Breer and especially Andy Warhol to become filmmakers Through their efforts to explore a fresh way of experiencing the moving image these artists sought to reimagine the nature and possibilities of art in a post cinematic age and helped to develop a novel space between the black box of the movie theater and the white cube of the art gallery Packed with over one hundred illustrations Between the Black Box and the White Cube is a compelling look at a seminal moment in the cultural life of the moving image and its emergence in contemporary art Robert Breer Jennifer L. Burford,1999 Global Animation Theory Franziska Bruckner,Holger Lang,Nikica Gilic,Daniel Šuljic,Hrvoje Turkovic,2018-11-01 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Scanning historical and current trends in animation through different perspectives including art history film media and cultural studies is a prominent facet of today s theoretical and historical approaches in this rapidly evolving field Global Animation Theory offers detailed and diverse insights into the methodologies of contemporary animation studies as well as the topics relevant for today s study of animation The contact between practical and theoretical approaches to animation at Animafest Scanner is closely connected to host of this event the World Festival of Animated Film Animafest Zagreb It has given way to academic writing that is very open to practical aspects of animation with several contributors being established not only as animation scholars but also as artists This anthology presents alongside an introduction by the editors and a preface by well known animation scholar Giannalberto Bendazzi 15 selected essays from the first three Animafest Scanner editions They explore various significant aspects of animation studies some of them still unknown to the English speaking communities Lessons in Perception Paul Taberham,2018-06-19 Lessons in Perception seeks to clarify notoriously elusive themes of the avant garde with the use of existing research from the field of psychology There is a long standing history of reference to psychological concepts in relation to avant garde film such as its unique relationship to memory visual perception narrative comprehension and synesthesia Yet direct analysis of these topics in light of existing psychological research remains largely unexplored until now More broadly the aim of the book is to frame avant garde filmmaking practice as a form of practical psychology In doing so two principal arguments are proposed first that many avant garde filmmakers draw creative inspiration from their own cognitive and perceptual capacities and touch on topics explored by actual psychologists secondly that as practical psychologists avant garde filmmakers provide lessons in perception that offer psychological experiences that are largely unrehearsed in commercial cinema Animation: A World History Giannalberto Bendazzi,2015-10-23 A continuation of 1994 s groundbreaking Cartoons Giannalberto Bendazzi s Animation A World History is the largest deepest most comprehensive text of its kind based on the idea that animation is an art form that deserves its own place in scholarship Bendazzi delves beyond just Disney offering readers glimpses into the animation of Russia Africa

Latin America and other often neglected areas and introducing over fifty previously undiscovered artists Full of first hand never before investigated and elsewhere unavailable information Animation A World History encompasses the history of animation production on every continent over the span of three centuries Volume II delves into the decades following the Golden Age an uncertain time when television series were overshadowing feature films art was heavily influenced by the Cold War and new technologies began to emerge that threatened the traditional methods of animation Take part in the turmoil of the 1950s through 90s as American animation began to lose its momentum and the advent of television created a global interest in the art form With a wealth of new research hundreds of photographs and film stills and an easy to navigate organization this book is essential reading for all serious students of animation history Key Features Over 200 high quality head shots and film stills to add visual reference to your research Detailed information on hundreds of never before researched animators and films Coverage of animation from more than 90 countries and every major region of the world Chronological and geographical organization for quick access to the information you re looking for

Dreams of Chaos, Visions of Order James Peterson,1994 Addresses the question of how and to what extent viewers can make sense of American avant garde films Peterson examines the implicit assumptions of other scholars advocates an alternative to dominant approaches to the avant garde cinema and questions some long standing cliches about the history of the avant garde Includes numerous but tiny photographs Paper edition unseen 19 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Transforming the Screen, 1950-1959 Peter Lev,2003 Covering a tumultuous period of the 1950s this work explores the divorce of movie studios from their theater chains the panic of the blacklist era the explosive emergence of science fiction as the dominant genre and the rise of television and Hollywood s response with widescreen spectacles

Film Study Frank Manchel,1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

Visionary Film P. Adams Sitney,2002 Critics hailed previous editions of Visionary Film as the most complete work written on the exciting often puzzling and always controversial genre of American avant garde film This book has remained the standard text on American avant garde film since the publication of its first edition in 1974 Now P Adams Sitney has once again revised and updated this classic work restoring a chapter on the films of Gregory J Markopoulos and bringing his discussion of the principal genres and major filmmakers up to the year 2000
