Women Editing Modernism Jayne Marek, 2021-10-21 For many years young writers experimenting with forms and aesthetics in the early decades of this century small journals known collectively as little magazines were the key to recognition Joyce Stein Eliot Pound Hemingway and scores of other iconoclastic writers now considered central to modernism received little encouragement from the established publishers It was the avant garde magazines many of them headed by women that fostered new talent and found a readership for it Jayne Marek examines the work of seven women editors Harriet Monroe Alice Corbin Henderson Margaret Anderson Jane Heap H D Bryher Winifred Ellerman and Marianne Moore whose varied activities often behind the scenes and in collaboration with other women contributed substantially to the development of modernist literature Through such publications as Poetry The Little Review The Dial and Close Up these women had a profound influence that has been largely overlooked by literary historians Marek devotes a chapter as well to the interactions of these editors with Ezra Pound who depended upon but also derided their literary tastes and accomplishments Pound's opinions have had lasting influence in shaping critical responses to women editors of the early twentieth century In the current reevaluation of modernism this important book long overdue offers an indispensable introduction to the formative influence of women editors both individually and in their collaborative efforts

Publishing Modernist Fiction and Poetry Jaillant Lise Jaillant, 2019-02-06 Highlights the transformative impact that book publishers had on the modernist movement Publishing houses are nearly invisible in modernist studies Looking beyond little magazines and other periodicals this collection highlights the importance of book publishers in the diffusion of modernism It also participates in the transnational turn in modernist studies demonstrating that book publishers created new markets for modernist texts in the United States Europe and the rest of the world Key Features The first volume on Anglo American book publishers that sold difficult modernist texts to a wide range of readers around the world Sheds new light on the relationship between publishers and major modernist writers Includes essays of broad significance written in an accessible prose Draws on extensive work in neglected archives

Bryher: Two Novels Bryher, 2000-12-21 Bryher born Annie Winifred Ellerman is perhaps best known today as the lifelong partner of the poet H D She was however a central figure in modernist and avant garde cultural experimentation in the early twentieth century a prolific producer of poetry novels autobiography and criticism and an intimate and patron of such modernist artists as Gertrude Stein Marianne Moore and Dorothy Richardson Bryher's own path breaking writing has remained largely neglected long out of print and inaccessible to those interested in her oeuvre Now for the first time since their original publication in the early 1920s two of Bryher's pioneering works of fictionalized autobiography titled Development and Two Selves are reprinted in one volume for a new audience of readers scholars and critics Blending poetry prose and autobiographical details Development and Two Selves together constitute a compelling bildungsroman that is among the first ever to follow a young woman's process of coming out Through the fictionalized character Nancy the novels trace Bryher's life through her childhood and young adulthood giving the reader an account of the development of a unique lesbian feminist and modernist consciousness Development and Two Selves recover significant work by one of the first experimenters of the modernist movement and are a welcome reintroduction of the enigmatic Bryher

Prelude to Democracy C. E. Pulos, Donald Jenks Ziegler, Robert E. Knoll, Wallace C. Peterson, 1957 Reflections K. Peter Stich, 1988 This volume discusses the autobiographical inclination in Canadian literature exploring works by such writers as Alice Munro W O Mitchell Michael Ondaatje John Glassco and Susanna Moodie Others works including the oral memoirs of a M'tis an Inuit's account as being civil servant in Ottawa and the autobiographical writings of pioneer women and French missionaries are examined to show the depth and breadth of this tradition in Canada These texts act as starting points for an in depth look at the relationships between autobiography biography and fiction in Canadian literature Published in English Guide to the Study of United States Imprints George Thomas Tanselle, 1971 Anarchists, Beats and Dadaists Jim Burns, 2015-10-12 This seventh collection of essays and reviews kicks off with a survey of some overlooked British poets from the 1940s who through a network of little magazines with anarchist inclinations attempted to offer an alternative to the MacSpaunDay generation's sensibilities Another piece considers how British writers were monitored by MI5 and local police forces while a third switches attention to the USA and looks at the still controversial case of Alger Hiss and his alleged role as a spy who passed information to Russia There are essays about lesser known Beat related writers like Bob Kaufman and Brion Gysin inspections of some little magazines of the 1950s and 1960s and two long reviews which consider the effect that Dadaism had and the role played in the movement by Tristan Tzara Walt Whitman Woody Guthrie and Malcolm Cowley also make an appearance Kay Boyle Kay Boyle, 2015-06-15 One of the Lost Generation modernists who gathered in 1920s Paris Kay Boyle published more than forty books including fifteen novels eleven collections of short fiction eight volumes of poetry three children's books and various essays and translations Yet her achievement can be even better appreciated through her letters to the literary and cultural titans of her time Kay Boyle shared the first issue of This Quarter with Gertrude Stein and Ernest Hemingway expressed her struggles with poetry to William Carlos Williams and voiced warm admiration to Katherine Anne Porter fled WWII France with Max Ernst and Peggy Guggenheim socialized with the likes of James Joyce Marcel Duchamp and Samuel Beckett and went to jail with Joan Baez The letters in this first of its kind collection authorized by Boyle herself bear witness to a transformative era illuminated by genius and darkened by Nazism and the Red Scare Yet they also serve as milestones on the journey of a woman who possessed a gift for intense and enduring friendship a passion for social justice and an artistic brilliance that earned her inclusion among the celebrated figures in her ever expanding orbit
