Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon. As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here. Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality. Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics. Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship.

A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte, Neil Nakadate, Roger Dennis Cherry, 1992 Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L. Kinneavy's firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices. A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric. A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing. A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work. The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing Understanding Jane Smiley Neil Nakadate,1999 In this comprehensive study of Jane Smiley's fiction Neil Nakadate offers insight into the strikingly imaginative and intellectual range of a Pulitzer Prize winning writer best known for A Thousand Acres He provides close readings from the early Barn Blind to The All True Travels and Adventures of Lidie Newton and presents the first extended account of the connections between her life and her work Reference Guide to American Literature Jim Kamp,1994 Now in its 3rd edition the Reference Guide to American Literature focuses on the rich diversity of individuals that comprise an important group of American novelists poets dramatists and essayists Entries include expanded multi ethnic representation and profile more African Americans and for the first time Asian Hispanic and Native American writers and works as well as writers who concentrate on women's and gay and lesbian issues Rethinking Meter Alan Holder,1995 This study finds that in scanning poetry the commitment to the foot as a unit of measure satisfies a desire for a poem to display a system But that system is achieved only at the cost of distorting or obscuring the true stress configuration of verse lines The foot also comes into play in setting up the notion of an ideal line supposedly heard by the mind's ear and said to be in tension or counterpoint with the actual line Rethinking Meter discards this approach as removing us from our authentic experience of a poem's movement Before presenting its own view of meter the book takes up the issues of how the words of a poem are to be enunciated the place of pauses and the notion of the line as the essential formal feature marking off poetry from prose Focusing on iambic pentameter Rethinking Meter proceeds to offer a view of metrical patterns that discards the foot entirely BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Catalog of Copyright Entries. Copyright Office,1979 Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Tales, Poems, and Other Writings Herman Melville,2002-07-09 From short masterpieces like Bartleby the Scrivener and Billy Budd to more obscure even completely unknown works like the epic poem Clarel Melville's stories and poems rank among his greatest and most gripping work This unique anthology the first of its kind in fifty years gathers together all of Melville's tales as well as a judiciously edited array of his prose poems literary criticism letters lectures and poetry Though few realize it today poetry was Melville's abiding passion yet his poetry has never received the recognition it deserves until now Containing many writings available nowhere else and edited by leading Melville scholar John Bryant Tales Poems and Other Writings includes a comprehensive introductory essay and extensive in many cases groundbreaking editorial commentary It opens a window onto Melville's writing process he was a ceaseless reviser and experimenter and reveals his career long evolution as a writer as well as the full breadth of his literary achievement And it marks a new stage in our ability to appreciate not only the work of one of our greatest writers but the immense dedication that lay behind it John Bryant is a professor of English at Hofstra University He has published five books and numerous articles on Melville and is the editor of the Penguin Classics edition of Typee and the Modern Library edition of The Confidence Man He has been the general editor of the Melville Society one of the oldest and largest single author societies in America since 1990 The Cumulative Book Index, 1909 A world list of books in the English language Look Abroad, Angel Jedidiah Evans, 2020-02 Born in Asheville North Carolina Thomas Wolfe 1900 1938 was one of the most influential southern writers widely considered to rival his contemporary William Faulkner who believed Wolfe to be one of the greatest talents of their generation His novels including Look Homeward Angel 1929 Of Time and the River 1935 and the posthumously published The Web and the Rock 1939 and You Can't Go Home Again 1940 remain touchstones of U S literature In Look Abroad Angel Jedidiah Evans uncovers the global Wolfe reconfiguring Wolfe's supposedly intractable homesickness for the American South as a form of longing that is instead indeterminate and expansive Instead of promoting and reinforcing a narrow and cloistered formulation of the writer as merely southern or Appalachian Evans places Wolfe in transnational contexts examining Wolfe's impact and influence throughout Europe In doing so he de-territorializes the response to Wolfe's work revealing the writer as a fundamentally global presence within American literature Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1965 The Robert Frost Encyclopedia Nancy L.
