from other theatre scholars and supported by examples from Wilson's performances. A conclusion will be drawn regarding how these conventions work together in Wilson's work to provide the audience with a true Post-dramatic theatre experience. Robert Wilson is an internationally acclaimed experimental theatre stage director. His style of theatre is referred to as Theatre of Visuals or Theatre of Images, coined by New York-based critic Bonnie Marranca. Since the 1960s, Wilson's productions have had a significant influence on the world of theatre and opera. Theatre of Images is Wilson's endeavor at freeing the audience from text-specific interpretations which he found prevalent in Western theatre. He wanted to create theatre where the audience was free to explore individual meanings from his visual and aural experiences.

The book is really an introduction to the avant-garde. John Lahr Robert Wilson from a Theatre of Images, 1980 Robert Wilson (Encyclopedia Entry), 2017 The Sidney E. Cohn Distinguished Professor of Theatre and Comparative Literature at CUNY Marvin Carlson outlines the history, aims, and methods of American theatre director Robert Wilson. Carr, 1989 Land/scape/theater Elinor Fuchs, Una Chaudhuri, 2002 Essays by leading theater scholars and theorists exploring the turn to landscape in modern and contemporary theater. The Cinematic Theater Babak A. Ebrahimian, 2004-08-06 Director Babak Ebrahimian examines and explores the similarities and differences between cinema and theater and in doing so defines a new theater form that uses film theories and aesthetics as its foundation. On Refuge Richard Gough, 1997 A refuge provides a place of safety, a place which constitutes the necessary conditions for making work. But what are the conditions of making work for the displaced, exiled, or the migrant artist when the place and conditions for work have perhaps been erased? On Refuge looks at how such altered conditions affect the work of performance and considers how performance constructs its own production and survival. The contributors address issues of territory and asylum, home and exile, locality and migration as they affect both artists themselves and the forms evident in contemporary performance.
