Robert Creeley Mary Novik,1973-01-01 Disjunctive Poetics Peter Quartermain,1992-06-26 Disjunctive Poetics examines some of the experimental contemporary writers including Stein and Zukofsky whose work forms a counterpoint to the mainstream writing of our time Peter Quartermain suggests that the explosion of such modern writing is linked to the severe political social and economic dislocation of non English speaking immigrants who arriving in America at the turn of the century found themselves uprooted from their tradition and disassociated from their culture The Postmoderns Donald Allen,George F. Butterick,1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation s postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works The Selected Letters of Robert Creeley Robert Creeley,2014 Robert Creeley is one of the most celebrated and influential of the postwar American poets His Selected Letters covering the years 1945 2005 are a foundational document in the recent history of North American letters Through his engagements with mentors such as William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound peers such as Charles Olson Robert Duncan Denise Levertov Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac and mentees such as Charles Bernstein Anselm Berrigan Ed Dorn Susan Howe and Tom Raworth Creeley helped forge a new poetry that re imagined writing for his and subsequent generations A stylist of the highest order Creeley s letters carry the clear mark of consummate literary artistry and document the life work and times of one of our greatest writers Stubborn Poetries Peter Quartermain,2013-06-25 Stubborn Poetries is a study of poets whose work because of its difficulty or simple resistance to conventional explication remains more or less firmly outside the canon Book jacket

Poetic Community Stephen Voyce,2013-01-01 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women s Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Voyce offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War s ideological enclosures

Charles Olson Paul Christensen,2014-03-19 Charles Olson was an important force behind the raucous explicit jaunty style of much of twentieth century poetry in America This study makes a major contribution to our understanding of his life and work Paul Christensen draws upon a wide variety of source materials from letters unpublished essays and fragments and sketches from the Olson Archives to the full range of Olson s published prose and poetry Under Christensen s critical examination Olson emerges as a stunning theorist and poet whose erratic and often unfinished writings obscured his provocative intellect and the coherence of his perspective on the arts Soon after World War II Olson emerged as one of America s leading poets with his revolutionary document on poetics Projective Verse and his now classic poem The Kingfishers both of which declared a new set of techniques for verse composition Throughout the 1950s Olson wrote many polemical essays on literature history aesthetics and philosophy that outlined a new stance to experience he called objectism A firm advocate of spontaneous self expression in the arts Olson regarded the poet s return to an intense declaration of individuality as a force to combat the decade s insistence on conformity Throughout his life Olson fought against the depersonalization of the artist in the modern age his resources raw verve and unedited tumultuous lyricism were weapons he used against generalized life and identity This volume begins with an overview of Olson's life from his early years as a student at Harvard through his short lived political career his rectorship at Black Mountain College and his retirement to Gloucester to finish writing the Maximus poems Christensen provides a systematic review of Olson's prose works including a close examination of his brilliant monograph on Melville Call Me Ishmael Considerable attention is devoted to Olson's theory of projectivism the themes and techniques of his short poems and the strategies and content of his major work the Maximus series In addition there is a critical survey of the works of Robert Creeley Robert Duncan Denise Levertov Paul Blackburn and other poets who show Olson's influence in their own innovative self exploratory poetry
