Robert Longo:

Robert Longo Carter Ratcliff, Robert Longo, 1985 Artist File Robert Longo, 1970 Robert Longo William Gibson, 1991 Robert Longo Robert Longo, 1984 Robert Longo Elsy Lahner, ISABELLE. GRAW, 2024-11-19 Symbols of freedom power and passion in the work of contemporary artist Robert Longo Robert Longo's work captures moments of tension in nature politics and history at their emotional climax Presented at a monumental scale the size and virtuoso technique of his photorealistic charcoal drawings enhance his powerful imagery Based on photographs and found images Longo's drawings tap into cultural and collective memories In the translation from the intimate drawing process to the massive scale of his final works his motifs become a powerful presence Political events and social observations influence his choice of design elements which he isolates and reduces to heighten their visual impact Using the stylistic devices of magnification and chiaroscuro his work can seem equally real and unreal He emphasizes the spatial depth and plasticity of his subjects using the deep blackness of charcoal on paper to absorb all light This book presents ninety full color images to explore the work of this groundbreaking contemporary artist Robert Longo: Charcoal Robert Longo, 2017-06-27 The enormous photorealistic charcoal drawings of American artist Robert Longo born 1953 show the beauty and horror of the present day and age His large format works contrast the innocence of sleeping toddlers the tranquil grandiosity of Earth and the planets roses in bloom and Gothic cathedrals with threatening images of atom bomb explosions fighter pilots monster waves sharks and the muzzles of revolvers Inexorably and precisely Longo records the state of our world his powerful motifs give form and expression to the feelings of fear and longing felt by people in the 21st century and affect the viewer with the full force of the medium Back in print this large format elaborately designed book printed on natural paper using a tritone process bound in half cloth and distributed in four different cover designs has been created in close collaboration with the artist and affords a comprehensive overview of his charcoal drawings from the past decade Robert Longo Robert Longo, 1990 ROBERT LONGO, 1985 Robert Longo - Drawings Robert Longo, 2015 Robert Longo Robert Longo, Andrew Durbin, 2017 This catalogue focuses on Robert Longo's recent series of charcoal drawings of well known Abstract Expressionist paintings Rendered in charcoal the original paintings are immediately recognizable but it is the overlooked or imperceptible details of the complex surface the tactility of the paint the brushstrokes and the pattern of the canvas that Longo has made visible in his translation from color to black and white paint to charcoal Exploring his ambivalence toward painting Longo's drawings address the historical magnitude of Abstract Expressionism in art historical and cultural contexts Along with the Abstract Expressionist drawings the book includes Longo's enormous seven panel drawing of the U S Capitol building and a 17 foot high black wax surfaced sculpture of an American flag that appears to collapse into or fall through the floor Men in the Cities, 2015 This book presents the photographic source material to the series taken by the artist himself Robert Longo Sara Hildén in taidemuseo (Tampere), 2017 Robert Longo, 1985

Pictures and the Past Alexander Bigman, 2024-06-25 A fresh take on the group of artists known as the Pictures Generation reinterpreting their work as haunted by the history of fascism the threat of its return and the effects of its recurring representation in postwar American culture The artists of the Pictures Generation converging on New York City in the late 1970s indelibly changed the shape of American art Rebelling against abstraction they borrowed liberally from the aesthetics of mass media and sometimes the work of other artists It has long been thought that the group's main contribution was to upend received conceptions of authorial originality In Pictures and the Past however art critic and historian Alexander Bigman shows that there is more to this moment than just the advent of appropriation art He presents us with a bold new interpretation of the Pictures group's most significant work in particular its recurring evocations of fascist iconography In the wake of the original Pictures show curated by Douglas Crimp in 1977 artists such as Sarah Charlesworth Jack Goldstein Troy Brauntuch Robert Longo and Gretchen Bender raised pressing questions about what it means to perceive the world historically in a society saturated by images Bigman argues that their references to past cataclysms to the violence wrought by authoritarianism and totalitarianism represent not only a coded form of political commentary about the 1980s but also a piercing reflection on the nature of collective memory Throughout Bigman situates their work within a larger cultural context including parallel trends in music fashion cinema and literature Pictures and the Past probes the shifting relationships between art popular culture memory and politics in the 1970s and 80s examining how the specter of fascism loomed for artists then and the ways it still looms for us today
