Robert Louis Stevenson and the Great Affair Richard J. Hill, 2017-02-03 In his travel narrative Travels with a Donkey in the Cevennes 1879 Robert Louis Stevenson declares I travel not to go anywhere but to go I travel for travel s sake The great affair is to move Taking up the concepts of time place and memory the contributors to this collection explore in what ways the dynamic view of life suggested by this quotation permeates Stevenson s work The essays adopt a wide variety of critical approaches including post colonial theory post structuralism new historicism art history and philosophy making use of the vast array of literary materials that Stevenson left across a global journey that began in Scotland in 1850 and ended in Samoa in 1894 These range from travel journals letters and classic literary staples such as Treasure Island and The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to rarely read masterpieces such as The Master of Ballantrae or The Ebb Tide While much recent scholarship on Stevenson foregrounds geography the present volume also examines the theme of movement across memory time and generic boundaries Taken together the essays offer a view of Stevenson that demonstrates how the protean nature of his literary output reflects the radical developments in science technology and culture that characterized the age in which he lived
