addresses a wide range of key themes in contemporary art such as the fundamental institutions and ontologies of art practice and the interactions among art politics and the public sphere A Companion to Contemporary Art in a Global Framework is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate students scholars researchers and general readers interested in exploring global art beyond the traditional Euro American context Queering the Popular Pitch Sheila Whiteley, Jennifer Rycenga, 2013-01-11 Queering the Popular Pitch is a new collection of 19 essays that situate queering within the discourse of sex and sexuality in relation to popular music This investigation addresses the changing debates within gay lesbian and queer discourse in relation to the dissemination of musical texts performance cultural production and sexual meaning situating music within the broader patterns of culture that it both mirrors and actively reproduces The collection is divided into four parts queering borders queer spaces hidden histories queer thoughts mixed media Queering the Popular Pitch will appeal to students of popular music Gay and Lesbian studies With case studies and essays by leading popular music scholars it provides insightful discourse in a growing field of musicological research Critical Readings in Bodybuilding Adam Locks, Niall Richardson, 2013-03-01 In recent years the body has become one of the most popular areas of study in the arts humanities and social sciences Bodybuilding in particular continues to be of interest to scholars of gender media film cultural studies and sociology However there is surprisingly little scholarship available on contemporary bodybuilding Critical Readings in Bodybuilding is the first collection to address the contemporary practice of bodybuilding especially the way in which the activity has become increasingly more extreme and to consider much neglected debates of gender eroticism and sexuality related to the activity Featuring the leading scholars of bodybuilding and the body as well as emerging voices this volume will be a key addition to the fields of Sociology Sport Studies and Cultural Studies Welcome to the Jungle Kobena Mercer, 2013-09-13 Welcome to the Jungle brings a black British perspective to the critical reading of a wide range of cultural texts events and experiences arising from volatile transformations in the politics of ethnicity sexuality and race during the 1980s The ten essays collected here examine new forms of cultural expression in black film photography and visual art exerging with a new generation of black British artists and interprets this prolific creativity within a sociological framework that reveals fresh perspectives on the bewildering complexity of identity and diversity in an era of postmodernity Kobena Mercer documents a wealth of insights opened up by the overlapping of Asian African and Caribbean cultures that constitute Black Britain as a unique domain of diaspora Alan Hollinghurst Michele Mendelssohn, Denis Flannery, 2016-07-08 This groundbreaking cross generic collection is the first to consider the entire breadth of Alan Hollinghurst s Booker Prize winning writing Focused through the concept of influence the volume addresses critical issues surrounding the work of Britain s most important contemporary novelist It encompasses provocative and timely subjects ranging from gay visual cultures and representations to Victorian modernist and contemporary literature as well as race and empire theatre and cinema eros and economics The book reveals the fascinating intellectual and affective matter that lies beneath the polished control and dazzling style of Hollinghurst's work. Alongside contributions by distinguished British and American critics, the book includes an unpublished interview with Hollinghurst. Alan Hollinghurst: Writing under the influence uses a creative range of critical approaches to provide the most authoritative and innovative account available of Hollinghurst's works. Ecce Homo Kent L. Brintnall, 2024-05-31 Images of suffering male bodies permeate Western culture from Francis Bacon's paintings and Robert Mapplethorpe's photographs to the battered heroes of action movies. Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies, gender and queer studies, psychoanalysis, art history, and film theory, Ecce Homo explores the complex, ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain. Acknowledging that representations of men confronting violence and pain can reinforce ideas of manly tenacity, Kent L. Brintnall also argues that they reveal the vulnerability of men's bodies and open them up to eroticization. Locating the roots of our cultural fascination with male pain in the crucifixion, he analyzes the way narratives of Christ's death and resurrection both support and subvert cultural fantasies of masculine power and privilege. Through stimulating readings of works by Georges Bataille, Kaja Silverman, and more, Brintnall delineates the redemptive power of representations of male suffering and violence. What is Black Art? Alice Correia, 2022-09-29 A landmark anthology on British art history bringing together overlooked and marginalized perspectives from the critical decade. What is Black art? This vital anthology gives voice to a generation of artists of African, Asian, and Caribbean heritage who worked within and against British art institutions in the 1980s, including Sonia Boyce, Lubaina Himid, Eddie Chambers, and Rasheed Araeen. It brings together artists' statements, interviews, exhibition catalogues, essays, and reviews, most of which have been unavailable for many years and resonate profoundly today. Together, they interrogate the term Black art itself and revive a forgotten dialogue from a time when men and women who had been marginalized made themselves heard within the art world and beyond. Performance and Popular Music Ian Inglis, 2017-07-05 Since the emergence of rock n roll in the early 1950s, there have been a number of live musical performances that were not only memorable in themselves but became hugely influential in the way they shaped the subsequent trajectory and development of popular music. Each in its own way introduced new styles, confronted existing practices, shifted accepted definitions, and provided templates for others to follow. Performance and Popular Music explores these processes by focusing on some of the specific occasions when such transformations occurred. An international array of scholars reveal that it is through the often disruptive dynamics of performance and the interaction between performer and audience that patterns of musical change and innovation can best be recognised. Through multi-disciplinary analyses which consider the history, place, and time of each event, the performances are located within their social and professional contexts and their immediate and long-term musical consequences considered. From the Beatles and Bob Dylan to Michael Jackson and Madonna, from Woodstock and Monterey to Altamont and Live Aid, this book provides an indispensable assessment of the importance of live performance in the practice of popular music and an essential guide to some of the key moments in its history     Ecce Homo Kent Brintnall, 2011 Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain     Affective Geographies of Transformation, Exploration and Adventure Hayley Saul, Emma Waterton, 2018-06-27 Combining critical reflections from scholars around the globe as well as experiential records from some of the world's most tenacious explorers this book interrogates the concept of the frontier as a realm of transformation exploration and adventure We discover the affective power of social physical spiritual and political frontiers in shaping humanity's abilities to change and become We collectively unpack the enduring conceptualization of the frontier as a site of nation state identity formation violent colonization masculine prowess and the triumph of progress In its place this book charts a more complex and subtle emotional geography amidst an array of frontiers the expanding human psyche that is induced under free diving narcosis and tales of survival on one of the most technically difficult mountains in the world The Ogre Chapters consider solitude in the Sahara near death experiences in Tibetan Buddhism the aftermath of a volcanic eruption in Bali the Spanish Imaginary snatched moments of sexual curiosity and many more This book will be of upmost importance to researchers working on theories of affect the Anthropocene frontier theory and human geography It will be vital supplementary reading for undergraduates and postgraduates on courses such as Heritage Studies Human and Cultural Geography Anthropology Tourism Studies and History
