The Apocalypse of John Among its Critics Alexander Stewart, Alan S. Bandy, 2023-07-26 Should Christians be embarrassed by the book of Revelation The Revelation of John has long confused and disturbed readers The Apocalypse of John among Its Critics confronts the book s difficulties Leading experts in Revelation wrestle honestly with a question raised by critics Should John s Apocalypse be in the canon Alan S Bandy Was John intentionally confusing Ian Paul Was John a bully Alexander E Stewart Did John delight in violence Dana M Harris Was John a chauvinist K Ili T niste Was John intolerant to others Michael Naylor Was John antisemitic Rob Dalrymple Did John make things up about the future Dave Mathewson Did John advocate political subversion Mark Wilson Did John misuse the Old Testament G K Beale Engaging deeply with Revelation s difficulties helps the reader understand the book s message and respond rightly The book of Revelation does not need to be avoided or suppressed It contains words of life

A Commentary on the Revelation of Jesus Christ with Old Testament Allusions Bob Cunningham, 2020-06-07 Many people struggle with the book of Revelation because it is filled with strange symbols numbers and bizarre images of beasts and visions A blessing is promised Rev 1 3 to all who read it but it cannot be received if one is intimidated by engaging the book The key to understanding it lies in the context in which it was written which is the Old Testament This book attempts to open up the reader to greater understanding of the book by giving the Old Testament references that John s readers would have been familiar with for the passages the Holy Spirit inspired John to write

Situating Josephus' Life within Ancient Autobiography

Davina Grojnowski, 2023-06-15 Davina Grojnowski examines Life the autobiographical text written by ancient Jewish historian Flavius Josephus from a literary studies perspective and in relation to genre theory In order to generate a framework of literary practices Josephus Life and other texts within Josephus literary spheres all associated with autobiography are the focus of a detailed literary analysis which compares the texts in terms of established features such as structure topoi and subject This methodological examination enables a better understanding of the literary boundaries of autobiography in antiquity and illustrates Josephus thought process during the composition of Life Grojnowski also offers a comparative study of autobiographical practices in Greek and Roman literature demonstrating the value of passive education supplementing what had been taught actively and its impact on authors and audiences As a result she provides insight into the development of literary practices in reaction to various forms of education and subsequently reflects on the religious self views of authors and audiences Simultaneously Grojnowski reacts to current discourses on ancient literary genres and demonstrates that ancient autobiography existed as a teachable literary genre in classical literature
