Afro-Cuban Identity in Post-Revolutionary Novel and Film Andrea E. Morris, 2012 Afro-Cuban Identity in Post-Revolutionary Novel and Film examines the changing discourse on race as portrayed in Cuban novels and films produced after 1959 Andrea Easley Morris analyzes the artists participation in and questioning of the revolutionary government's revision of national identity to include the unique experience and contributions of Cuban men and women of African descent While the Cuban revolution brought sweeping changes that vastly improved the material condition of many Afro-Cubans at the time overrepresented among Cuba's poor and marginalized the government's official position was that racial inequities had been resolved as early as 1962 Although a more open dialogue on race was cut short the work of several novelists and film directors from the late 1960s and 70s expresses the need to explore what was gained and lost by Afro-Cubans in the early years of the revolution among them Manuel Granados Miguel Barnet Nivaria Tejera Sara Gómez Cesar Leante Tomás Gutiérrez Alea Sergio Giral and Manuel Cofi o Their works participate in the process of redefining Cuban national identity that took place after the revolution and more specifically they explore the place of Afro Cuban identity within a broader notion of revolutionary Cubanness This occurs through an emphasis on Afro Cuban cultural practices that have constituted forms of resistance to colonial and neo colonial oppression This book examines the identity conflicts portrayed in these works and takes into account the artists negotiation of their own status within the revolutionary context by looking at the narrative strategies used to address racial issues within the constraints placed on cultural production in Cuba after 1962

New Approaches to Latin American Studies Juan Poblete,2025-05-30 New Approaches to Latin American Studies Culture and Power Vol 2 provides an examination of the new and defining approaches that have emerged in the field of Latin American Studies in the last decade since 2014 Like its predecessor this second volume of New Approaches to Latin American Studies is organized using the concept of a turn as in linguistic or cultural turn and aims to help both students and faculty in an eminently interdisciplinary space like Latin American Studies find new ways of conceptualizing objects and research Original contributions from experts in their fields provide a discussion that is not meant to be fully comprehensive but concentrates instead on key authors and key texts In each chapter the keyword that defines the turn functions as a specific limit that contains the proliferation of references and connections restricting them to the trajectory of such turn This second volume includes 11 new chapters covering important transformations during the last decade on the issues perspectives and stakes of the field This book is an expert produced reliable and reader friendly orientation to the many new areas of research Latin American Studies now encompasses and evidence of the dynamism of this complex field

The Inverted Conquest Alejandro Mejias-Lopez, 2010-02-09 Modernismo 1880s 1920s is considered one of the most groundbreaking literary movements in Hispanic history as it transformed literature in Spanish to an extent not seen since the Renaissance As Alejandro Mejias Lopez demonstrates however modernismo was also groundbreaking in another more radical way it was the first time a postcolonial literature took over the literary field of the former European metropolis Expanding Bourdieu s concepts of cultural field and symbolic capital beyond national boundaries The Inverted Conquest shows how modernismo originated in Latin America and traveled to Spain where it provoked a complete renovation of Spanish letters and contributed to a national identity crisis In the process described by Latin American writers as a reversal of colonial relations modernismo wrested literary and cultural authority away from Spain moving the cultural center of the Hispanic world to the Americas Mejias Lopez further reveals how Spanish American modernistas confronted the racial supremacist claims and homogenizing force of an Anglo American modernity that defined the Hispanic as un modern Constructing a new Hispanic genealogy modernistas wrote Spain as the birthplace of modernity and themselves as the true bearers of the modern spirit moved by the pursuit of knowledge cosmopolitanism and cultural miscegenation rather than technology consumption and scientific theories of racial purity Bound by the intrinsic limits of neocolonial and postcolonial theories scholarship has been unwilling or unable to explore modernismo s profound implications for our understanding of Western

La traducción entendida como un fenómeno de negociación asimétrica de lenguas e identidades constituye un aspecto central en los debates que pretenden explicar la invisibilización de la pluralidad cultural latinoamericana. Este libro se propone reflexionar sobre escenas de traducción en una apuesta que busca leer a contrapelo el discurso de la Historia contra lo que ese discurso ha encubierto para evidenciar las posiciones enunciativas de poder desde las cuales la alteridad ha sido y sigue siendo reducida, silenciada o expropiada. La escena de traducción ese lugar imaginario donde se dirime la existencia de los otros permite poner en relación acontecimientos en el arco temporal amplio que va desde la conquista americana al presente. Desde los estudios literarios, estos ensayos contribuyen al conocimiento de las continuidades y rupturas en el devenir americano de la traducción en un trabajo crítico orientado a evaluar formas instituidas de traducción e imaginar nuevas alternativas. Plan de estudios de la licenciatura en estudios latinoamericanos, 2004
