When Cathleen Harrington leaves her home in Ireland in 1919 to travel to South Africa she knows that she does not love the man she is to marry there her fiancé Edward whom she has not seen for five years. Isolated and estranged in a small town in the harsh Karoo desert her only real companions are her diary and her housemaid and later the housemaid's daughter Ada. When Ada is born Cathleen recognizes in her someone she can love and respond to in a way that she cannot with her own family. Under Cathleen's tutelage Ada grows into an accomplished pianist and a reader who cannot resist turning the pages of the diary discovering the secrets Cathleen sought to hide. As they grow closer Ada sees new possibilities in front of her a new horizon. But in one night everything changes and Cathleen comes home from a trip to find that Ada has disappeared scorned by her own community. Cathleen must make a choice should she conform to society or search for the girl who has become closer to her than her own daughter. When the two women meet at a formal ball intended to raise money for the local LGBTQ teen center their initial encounter is anything but friendly. Even so Nicole finds herself drawn to the ebony haired Zoey despite their wildly differing positions in life. Radio Psychics John Benedict Buescher,2021-09-02 When radio broadcasting began in the early 1920s the radio was a magic box aglow with the future drawing humanity into a new age Some thought it would dissolve the distance between time and place others that human minds would become transparent one tuned to another Performers claiming psychic powers turned radio broadcasting into a fabulous money machine These mentalists born from vaudeville circuses sideshows and the Spiritualist and New Thought movements of the mid late 19th century used the language of wireless technology to explain their ability to see the past present and future Casting their mystical knowledge as a scientifically honed craft these mentalists persuaded millions to pay for dubious advice until governmental and public pressures forced them off the air This book is a history of over 25 performers who practiced their art behind studio microphones during the early years of radio broadcasting from about 1920 to 1940 Here laid out for the first time is the tale of how they made cash rain from the heavens and harnessed the sensation of the radio in search of wealth health love and success
