Rose Street Carmen J. Leone,1998      The Meng (1630) and Shamhart (1147) Family History and Genealogy in Deutschland and America. James L. Meng,2012-06-18 James L Meng is a retired labor relations arbitrator who was born in the mid American steel town of Granite City Illinois His parents were born in Freeburg and Newton Illinois and were active civic leaders in their community In his formative years James met several occasions that comprised a very interesting youth After graduating from college he joined the Missouri Air National Guard where he was awarded the Airman s Medal for Valor Afterwards he continued his education for a Master degree He married his lovely wife Beverly and had two children and four grandchildren While cleaning out his basement he discovered several inherited boxes containing family pictures and documents Although not a genealogist which he says with a great deal of pride he fortunately decided to share his information with others both the born and unborn This book is written to reflect the lives and personalities of real people not just the genealogical statistics of born on date married on date had child one two three and died on this date These were real people who realized and conquered a variety of life challenges in Germany and in their newly adopted home in America As a nation of immigrants we should not let their contributions be forgotten      Working Toward Whiteness David R. Roediger,2005-05-31 By an award winning historian of race and labor a definitive account of how Ellis Island immigrants became accepted as cultural insiders in America      Michigan Genealogy Carol McGinnis,2005 This is one of the finest statewide sourcebooks ever published a remarkable compilation of sources and resources that are available to help researchers find their Michigan ancestors It identifies records on the state and regional level and then the county level providing details of vital records court and land records military records newspapers and census records as well as the holdings of the various societies and institutions whose resources and facilities support the special needs of the genealogist County by county it lists the names addresses websites e mail addresses and hours of business of libraries archives genealogical and historical societies courthouses and other record repositories describes their manuscripts and record collections highlights their special holdings and provides details regarding queries searches and restrictions on the use of their records      Genealogist's Address Book. 6th Edition Elizabeth Petty Bentley,2009-02 This book is the answer to the perennial question What s out there in the world of genealogy What organizations institutions special resources and websites can help me Where do I write or phone or send e mail Once again Elizabeth Bentley s Address Book answers these questions and more Now in its 6th edition The Genealogist s Address Book gives you access to all the key sources of genealogical information providing names addresses phone numbers fax numbers e mail addresses websites names of contact persons and other pertinent information for more than 27 000 organizations including libraries archives societies government agencies vital records offices professional bodies publications research centers and special interest groups      Public Memory, Race, and Ethnicity G. Mitchell Reyes,2010-06-09 Scholars across the humanities and social sciences who study public memory study the ways that groups of people collectively remember the past One motivation for such study is to understand how collective identities at the local regional and national level emerge and why those collective identities often lead to conflict Public Memory Race and Ethnicity contributes to this rapidly evolving scholarly conversation by taking into consideration the influence of race and ethnicity on our collective practices of remembrance How do the ways we remember the past influence racial and ethnic identities How do racial and ethnic identities shape our practices of remembrance Public Memory Race and Ethnicity brings together nine provocative critical investigations that address these questions and others regarding the role of public memory in the formation of racial and ethnic identities in the United States The book is organized chronologically Part I addresses the politics of public memory in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries focusing on how immigrants who found themselves in a strange new world used memory to assimilate on the interplay of ethnicity and patriarchy in early monumental representations of Sacagawea and on the use of memory and forgetting to negotiate labor and racial tensions in an industrial steel town Part II attends to the dynamics of memory and forgetting during and after World War II examining the problems of remembrance as they are related to Japanese internment the strategies of remembrance surrounding important events of the Civil Rights Movement and the institutional use of memory and tradition to normalize whiteness and control human behavior Part III focuses on race and remembrance in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries analyzing Walter Mosley s use of memory in his literary work to challenge racial norms President George W Bush s strategies of remembrance in his 2006 address to the NAACP and the problems of memory and racial representation in the aftermath of the Katrina disaster Taken together the essays in this volume often speak to each other in remarkable ways and one can begin to see in their progression the transformation of race relations in America since the nineteenth century
