101 Stories for Enhancing Happiness and Well-Being George W. Burns, 2017-02-10 Research shows us clearly what works in counseling and psychotherapy. Often by the time clients enter a therapist's office, they have been told what to do, often soundly and sensibly, by well-meaning family, friends, and health professionals. The challenge for the effective therapist is how to communicate these same sound messages in ways that the client is more likely to take on board, act on, and benefit from. 101 Stories for Enhancing Happiness and Well-Being harnesses the power of stories to translate the research from positive psychology into effective and practical therapeutic interventions. It communicates the core processes for enhancing happiness and well-being in ways that are easy to understand and incorporate into one's therapeutic practice and clients' lives.

Mostly Happy Elif Ekin, 2012-03 For Elif Ekin, entertaining the idea of a divorce was intimidating. There were questions of money, custody, and living arrangements. But she really wanted to regain control of her life. So after ten years of marriage and with her four-year-old little girl, Elif made the difficult decision to file for divorce, a scary proposition for a stay-at-home mom. In this memoir, Elif chronicles her journey through this deeply emotional process in which she had so much to lose and yet so much to gain. Mostly Happy shares a brutally honest account of her experiences through the ups and downs and through all of the difficult situations and decisions. It narrates her proactive approach: seeking therapy, doing extensive reading, and finding her center. Mostly Happy follows Elif as she acknowledges her emotions and rediscovers herself while moving through the legal process and finding a state of peace and contentment on the other side.
