Home/Land Rebecca Mead,2023-07-11 A moving reflection on the complicated nature of home and homeland and the heartache and adventure of leaving an adopted country in order to return to your native land this is a winsome memoir of departure and reversal about the way a series of unknowns accrue into a life Jia Tolentino author of Trick Mirror When the New Yorker writer Rebecca Mead relocated to her birth city London with her family in the summer of 2018 she was both fleeing the political situation in America and seeking to expose her son to a wider world With a keen sense of what she d given up as she left New York her home of thirty years she tried to knit herself into the fabric of a changed London The move raised poignant questions about place What does it mean to leave the place you have adopted as home and country And what is the value and cost of uprooting yourself In a deft mix of memoir and reportage drawing on literature and art recent and ancient history and the experience of encounters with individuals environments and landscapes in New York City and in England Mead artfully explores themes of identity nationality and inheritance She recounts her time in the coastal town of Weymouth where she grew up her dizzying first years in New York where she broke into journalism the rich process of establishing a new home for her dual national son in London Along the way she gradually reckons with the complex legacy of her parents Home Land is a stirring inquiry into how to be present where we are while never forgetting where we have been Frighten the Horses Oliver Radclyffe, 2024-09-17 An Oprah Daily Best Book of Fall A CLMP Firecracker Awards Finalist A textured sharply written memoir about coming of age in the fourth decade of one's life and embracing one's truest self in a world that demands gender fit in neat boxes From the outside Oliver Radclyffe spent four decades living an immensely privileged beautifully composed life As the daughter of two well to do British parents and the wife of a handsome successful man from an equally privileged family Oliver played the parts expected of him He checked off every box marriage children four a white picket fence surrounding a stately home in Connecticut and a golden retriever named Biscuit But beneath the shiny veneer Oliver was desperately trying to stay afloat as he struggled to maintain a facade of normalcy his hair was falling out in clumps he couldn't eat and his mood swings often brought him to tears And then on an otherwise unremarkable afternoon in September Oliver Radclyffe woke up and realized the life of a trapped housewife was not one he was ever meant to live In fact Oliver had spent his entire life denying the deepest truest parts of himself In the wake of this realization he began the challenging messy journey toward self acceptance and living a truer life knowing he risked the life he'd built to do so That journey was fraught as Oliver navigated leaving a marriage and reintroducing himself to his children And despite the challenges he faced Oliver realized there was no way for him to go back to the beautiful lie of his previous life Not if he wanted to survive Frighten the Horses is a trans man's coming of age story about a housewife who comes out as a lesbian and tentatively at first steps into the world of queerness With growing courage and the support of his newfound community Oliver is finally able to face the question of his gender identity and become the man he is supposed to be The story of a flawed fascinating gorgeously queer man Frighten the Horses introduces Oliver Radclyffe as a witty arresting unforgettable voice The Art of Decision Making Helga

Drummond, 2002-02-15 Science reassures art disturbs Proverb This intriguing exploration of underlying forces in decision making takes as its starting point a wealth of high profile decision disasters In brilliantly readable analyses Helga Drummond shows how better awareness of the inherent uncertainties of the decision making process could have made the outcomes very different Examples showcased include The Hatfield rail crash The Kursk submarine disaster The Challenger disaster The year 2000 fuel crisis The WWII Dardanelles expedition The Barings Bank collapse The Taurus Stock Exchange Project The Hillsborough tragedy The King's Cross underground fire The Millennium Dome This entertaining yet instructive book offers new insight into the realities of decision making and shows how you can confront them to improve your prospects of success
