Liberal Ulster Frank Thompson,2001 Land its ownership its occupancy and the fate of the dispossessed has long been one of the most controversial issues in Irish society Never was this truer than in the Land War period of the 1870s and 1880s In this well documented volume Frank Thompson has provided a clear and refreshing analysis of the land question in Ulster In political terms it determined the path of Ulster politics at a critical juncture in Irish history to the extent that it was the central factor in first the rise then the fall of the Ulster Liberal Party This thorniest of issues provided the dynamic of the growth of the Liberal Party in Ulster so that whereas Liberalism was in terminal decline in the other three provinces there grew an almost irresistible tide of Liberal feeling in the North However the very success of the broader movement for land reform ultimately deprived the Liberal Party in Ulster of much of its political capital Furthermore the Parnellite campaign in the province from 1883 and Orange reaction to it increasingly divided Ulster along sectarian lines to the detriment of the Liberal cause By 1886 Home Rule had become the defining question it would remain until Partition The Land Question of course remained important but it had become clear that the time when it could radically influence the shape of Ulster was past Within a dramatically short period of coming to prominence though the Ulster Liberal was not quite an extinct political species Ulster Liberalism was well and truly a spent force     Looking Toward Sunset Lydia Maria Child,1883     The P.F.P.
