Rough Diamond Bill Gilvear:

Rough Diamond Sheana Brown, 2001-10-05 Bill Gilvear was a man you did not want to upset in the Glasgow of the 1940s. His father died when he was young and he became a member of one of the satellite gangs that were on the fringe of the Glasgow gangland scene, one of the underclass of ill-educated unemployed young men looking for mischief. He usually went around armed with a variety of weapons designed to leave psychological and physical scars on the victim. It was best to be on Bill's better side if you wanted to stay in one piece. Yet this unlikely character became a nurse in the Navy, was a missionary in Africa, obtaining medical qualifications in French and English and worked from Scotland to help seamen involved in the Falklands conflict. He is one of Scotland's best-loved evangelists. What caused this turnaround? From the danger of one kind of conviction, he became convicted instead of his need of forgiveness from a just but loving God, someone who knew all he had done in his life would still demand that he held responsible for it, but who also provided a way for even the worst person to start again. Read Bill's challenging story; it shows that God's idea of who is likely to become a Christian may be different from your own.

Protestant Missionaries & Humanitarianism in the DRC Jeremy McMaster Rich, 2020 A significant contribution to the history of humanitarianism, Christianity and the politics of aid in Africa.

Storming Home Billy Gilvear, Eric Gaudion PhD, 2013-05-17 Storming Home is the life story of Billy Gilvear, a self-destructive hard man, celebrity bodyguard and boozier whose life was utterly transformed into a Baptist Minister. Prison Chaplain, the Regional Director for the Eden Project and born-again Christian. The strict upbringing as the son of a missionary meant Billy always wanted to escape his childhood faith. As soon as he hit 16 years old, he enrolled in the Army and, despite being bullied, he flourished as a young soldier, receiving a fast-track commission. He then met a young corporal called Bev and soon they entered married life together. A bold career move from the Army into bodyguard work took him from dangerous war zones into the temptations of the celebrity world. He guarded Naomi Campbell, Take That, The Bee Gees, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Mel Gibson and more. Surrounded by the celebrities' lifestyle, introduced him to drugs, which led to befriending gangsters and dealing to others. His new lifestyle brought with it a destructive tendency which eventually lost him his job, his marriage and his children. For Billy, suicide was his only escape, but God had other plans. Through a friend, Billy rediscovered the God he had pushed aside, forgotten and ridiculed for the past 30 years. As a result, Bev encountered Christ; they reconciled, remarried, had two more children and became Christians. Now Billy has become a Baptist Minister, prison Chaplain and evangelist, helping others find Christ as he so miraculously did.
