Decolonising Intellectual Property Law Jade Kouletakis, Nkem Itanyi, 2025-09-30 This book advocates for an Afrocentric

approach to intellectual property IP law using lessons from Nigeria's past to encourage reform for the future of Africa's legal IP landscape Highlighting the Eurocentric influence on the history of intellectual property law in Africa the book demonstrates how this contradicts traditional African community culture This book makes the case for legitimising cultural expressions of traditional communities despite the western legal framework within which they exist reimagining a decolonised IP framework whereby African histories are centred Questioning the fundamentals of the current IP landscape such as the concept of eligibility in copyright which developed alongside European technological advances the book also details the role of the courts in resolving IP disputes It highlights Africa as a powerhouse of original autonomous innovation values and traditions which predate the West's concept of intellectual property It illustrates the African experience of intellectual property from a pro African perspective as shared by African authors This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of intellectual property copyright and patent law as well as African law Palmer's Index to "The Times"
