Rousing Minds To Life:

Rousing Minds to Life Roland G. Tharp, Ronald Gallimore, 1991-03-29 Addressing widespread discontent with contemporary schooling Roland Tharp and Ronald Gallimore develop a unified theory of education and offer a prescription the reconstitution of schools as educating societies Drawing on studies from the family nursery through the university seminar and on their own successful experiences with thousands of students over two decades their theory is firmly based in a culture sensitive developmental psychology but seeks to integrate all the recent work in the Vygotskian tradition with basic concepts in cognitive science anthropology and sociolinguistics One of the authors primary resources is the Kamehameha Elementary Education Program KEEP generally regarded as the world s outstanding research and development program for elementary schooling

Learning for Life in the 21st Century Gordon Wells, Guy Claxton, 2008-04-15 United by the belief that the most significant factor in shaping the minds of young people is the cultural setting in which learning takes place the twenty eminent contributors to this volume present new thinking on education across the boundaries of school home work and community

Learning in Places Zvi Bekerman, Nicholas C. Burbules, Diana Silberman-Keller, 2006 Learning in Places is a concerted effort undertaken by an outstanding group of international researchers to create a resource book that can introduce academic professional and lay readers to the field of informal learning education and its potential to transform present educational thinking The book presents a wealth of ideas from a wide variety of disciplinary fields and methodological approaches covering multiple learning landscapes in museums workplaces classrooms places of recreation in a variety of political social and cultural contexts around the world Learning in Places presents the most recent theoretical advances in the field analyzing the social cultural political historical and economical contexts within which informal learning develops and must be critiqued It also looks into the epistemology that nourishes its development and into the practices that characterize its implementation and finally reflects on the variety of educational contexts in which it is practiced

Unscientific Psychology Fred Newman, Lois Holzman, 2006 Philosopher and psychotherapist Fred Newman and developmental psychologist Lois Holzman challenge psychology s understandings of what a human being is what mental illness is and how people develop and learn They show how these understandings were created marketed and sold to the American public Going beyond critique the authors argue that instead of psychology what people the world over need is a cultural performatory approach to human life Unscientific Psychology is based on the authors twenty five year practice of creating such an approach and the network of therapeutic and educational projects that have been built with it Unscientific Psychology is at once a narrative of the history of philosophy modern science and psychology and a critique of psychology s methodology Arguing that psychology is a pseudoscientific hoax the authors deconstruct three of its most powerful myths the myth of the individual the myth of mental illness and the myth of development They tell the story of how these myths were constructed out of age old philosophical abstractions to create a world and a discourse of psychological objects Newman and

Holzman invite readers to think in new ways about our lives and the world around us Like similar books that make discoveries in the social sciences accessible and exciting to an educated audience Unscientific Psychology taps into the desire of readers who are eager to learn what s on the cutting edge of scientific and cultural change English Teaching Forum ,2000 The International Science and Evidence Based Education (ISEE) Assessment UNESCO MGIEP,2022-03-22 The International Science and Evidence Based Education ISEE Assessment is an initiative of the UNESCO Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development MGIEP and is its contribution to the Futures of Education process launched by UNESCO Paris in September 2019 In order to contribute to re envisioning the future of education with a science and evidence based report UNESCO MGIEP embarked on the first ever large scale assessment of knowledge of education
